No. 19-9/85-CD-1

Government of India

Ministry of Social & Women's Welfare

Shastri Bhavan, New Delhi - 1

Dated the 13th August, 1985

To

1. Secretaries in charge of the departments dealing with ICDS in all States/ Union Territories.
2. Directors of Social Welfare/Departments dealing with ICDS, in all states/Union Territories.

Subject:- Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS) Payment of Additional honorarium @ Rs.50/- to Anganawadi Workers for holding simultaneous charge of more than one Anganawadis.

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to refer to the instruction contained in item No.11 of the enclosure to this Ministry's letter No. 15-185-CD dated 14.3.1985 which stipulates that, whenever an anganwadi worker is deputed for training or proceeds on leave, a substitute anganwadi worker should be appointed temporarily in her place and paid honorarium. However, where on account of inescapable circumstances an anganwadi worker is asked to look after the work of two anganawadis an additional honorarium of Rs. 50/- per month should be paid to the worker for the period for which she actually looked after two anganwadis.

It is now further clarified that the additional honorarium of Rs.50/- per month is payable only. when the period for which an anganwadi worker has actually looked after more than one an anganwadis continuously is 10 days or more.

The receipt of this letter may please be acknowledged.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/-

It may be ensured that budget provision is made for TA etc. to supervisors/Anganawadi Workers when they visit the project officer attend the sectoral meetings called for by the MO/CDPO and undertake other official journey. Expenditure on TA/DA etc. of Supervisors/AWWS is met from Central ICDS grants.
