Code of Conduct for the Chairperson and Members of the Child Welfare Committees

Being the Chairperson or Member of the Child Welfare Committee is a rare honour and it calls for a discipline which is exemplary. The Chairperson and Members of the Committee shall observe the following code of conduct in carrying out their responsibilities:

1. The Chairperson and Members shall participate in all sittings of the Committee, and shall not absent themselves from the Committee sittings except for unavoidable reasons, or for participating in conferences, workshops or training programmes conducted or sponsored by the Government.

2. The Chairperson and Members participating in other functions on the days in which the Committee sittings are scheduled, will be construed as lacking in interest in the Committee work.

3. The Members shall ensure that they have three fourth attendance in the Committee sittings, or else withdraw voluntarily from the Committee, if such participation level cannot be maintained.

4. The Chairperson and Members shall ensure that they arrive at the Committee Hall at least half an hour in advance of the commencement of sittings and familiarize themselves with the cases being posted for the day. Coming late and leaving early will not be allowed. A minimum of four hours’ involvement in each of the Committee sitting is required to qualify a Member to sign on the attendance register. Each Member shall sign in the attendance register on every sitting day, indicating his/her time of arrival and departure from the Committee Hall.

5. The use of mobile phones within the committee hall is to be regulated. On entering the Committee hall the Members and the staff shall keep their mobiles on silent mode, and shall avoid conversation unrelated to the cases under consideration.

6. No Member shall be allowed to record statements from the child or their parents or others, on electronic equipment personally owned, without the permission of the Chairperson in writing stating reason therefor. In every such case where permission is obtained, the transcript of the recordings shall be handed over to the Chairperson immediately thereafter, and the file be deleted from the personal instrument.

7. Every Member is required to keep a ‘work diary’ detailing his/her involvement in the Committee, and make it available for scrutiny, as and when required by the Chairperson.

8. No Member of the Committee is allowed to copy any part of the Minutes of the Committee without written permission of the Chairperson.

9. The Members shall not be allowed to carry any file or document in relation to the Committee to his/her personal custody, unless specifically authorized by the Chairperson.

10. The Chairperson and the Members shall not meet any child, whose case is under the consideration of the Committee, in their residences or personal offices, or visit such child in his/her residence, without the decision of the Committee. In case such meetings are held in exceptional situations, the Chairperson shall be briefed on that at the earliest, and a detailed report be submitted to the Committee at the subsequent sittings.

11. The Chairperson and Members of the Committee shall not do anything which may be construed as aiding the accused. They shall not meet the accused, in any case under consideration, in their residences or offices, and any chance meeting with such persons be reported to the Chairperson at the earliest.

12. The Chairperson and the Members shall not offer any professional service to the accused or his/her relations, while being Members of the Committee. The Chairperson and Members shall ensure that his/her family Members or close relatives also do not offer professional services to such clients.

13. The Chairperson and Members shall keep every information related to cases under consideration of the Committee confidential, and shall not divulge any such information to anyone outside the Committee, unless so advised by the former.

14. The Chairperson and Members of the Committee shall not comment on any decision of the Committee, in any fora outside the Committee.

15. The Chairperson and Members of the Committee, shall not accept any monetary or other benefits or services from the child’s family or the institution caring for such children.

16. The Chairperson or Members giving reports or issuing orders which go against the rights of the child, or any law of the land, shall be treated as violating child rights.

17. The Chairperson or the Members of the Committee shall not consume alcohol, tobacco or such substances

18. The Chairperson and Members should ensure that they do not do anything which may be construed as belittling the status and responsibility of being a Bench of Magistrates, endowed with the final authority to provide for the care, protection, treatment, development, and rehabilitation of children.
