LAND REFORMS ACT, 1963

(Act 1 of 1964)

An Act to enact a comprehensive legislation relating to Land Reforms in the State of Kerala

Preamble.— WHEREAS it is expedient to enact a comprehensive legislation relating to land reforms in the State of Kerala;

BE it enacted in the Fourteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Kerala Land Reforms Act, 1963.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Kerala.

(3) The provisions of this Act, except this Section which shall come into force at once, shall come into force on such date as the Government may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint:

Provided that different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act, and any reference in any such provision to the commencement of this Act, shall be construed as a reference to the coming into force of that provision.

2. Definitions.— In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

1[(1) "adult unmarried person" means an unmarried person who has attained eighteen years of age;]

1[(1A)] "agricultural labourer" means a person whose principal means of livelihood is the income he gets as wages, in connection with the agricultural operations he performs;

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
(2) "agricultural year" means the year commencing with the 1st April in any year and ending with 31st March of the year next succeeding, except in the case of kole nilams in which case it shall be year commencing with the 15th June in any year and ending with the 14th June of the year next succeeding:

Provided that the District Collector may, with respect to any crop, area or category of land within his district, by notification in the Gazette, specify the year between such other date as he may deem fit as an agricultural year;

1[(2A) "Appellate authority" means an Appellate authority constituted under Section 99A;]

(3) "ceiling area" means the extent of land specified in Section 82 as the ceiling area;

(4) "Cochin" means the area comprising—

(i) the portion of the State of Kerala which before the first day of July, 1949, formed the State of Cochin, excluding the enclaves absorbed in the Malabar district under the Provinces and States (Absorption of Enclaves) Order, 1950; and

(ii) the enclaves which formed part of the Malabar district absorbed in the State of Travancore-Cochin under the said Order;

(5) "commercial site" means any land 1[not being a kudiyiruppu or kudikidappu or karaima] which is used principally for the purpose of any trade, commerce, industry, manufacture or business;

(6) "court" means, where a particular court is not specifically mentioned, the court having jurisdiction under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, to entertain a suit for the possession of the holding or part thereof to which any legal proceeding under this Act relates;

(7) "cultivate" with its grammatical variations means cultivate either solely by one's own labour or with the help of the members of his family or hired labourers or both, or personally direct or supervise cultivation by such members or hired labourers or both provided that such members or hired labourers have not agreed to pay or to take any fixed proportion of the produce of the land they cultivate as compensation for being allowed to cultivate it or as remuneration for cultivating it 1[and in the case of a member of the Armed Forces or a seaman "cultivation" includes cultivation on his behalf by any other person.]

Explanation— For the purpose of this clause, "members of family" shall mean:

(i) in the case of lands held by a joint family, members of such family, and

(ii) in any other case, wife or husband, as the case may be, and the lineal descendants;

(8) "cultivating tenant" means a tenant who is in actual possession of, and is entitled to cultivate, the land comprised in his holding;

(9) "customary dues" means anything, other than rent, michavaram or renewal fees:

(i) payable in cash or in kind by a tenant to his landlord; or

(ii) allowed to be taken by the landlord from the holding, periodically or on the happening of any event or on the occasion of any festival, and includes onakazhcha, utsavakopppu, perunnalkazhcha and aradiantharam;

(10) "double-crop nilam" means nilam on which more than one crop of paddy is ordinarily raised in an agricultural year;

(11) "dry land" means land which is not nilam, garden, pallial land or plantation;

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
(12) "eviction" means the recovery of possession of land from a tenant or the recovery of a kudikidappu from the occupation of the kudikidappukan;

(13) "fair rent" means the rent payable by a cultivating tenant under Section 27 or Section 33;

(14) "family" means husband, wife and their unmarried minor children or such of them as exist;

(15) "garden" means land used principally for growing coconut trees, arecanut trees or pepper vines, or any two or more of the same;

(16) "gross produce" in the case of a nilam, means the normal produce of that nilam less the cost of harvesting and, in the case of a garden or dry land, means the normal produce of that garden or dry land:

1[x x x]

2[(17) "holding" means a parcel or parcels of land held under a single transaction by a tenant from a landlord and shall include any portion of a holding as above defined which the landlord and the tenant have agreed or are bound to treat as a separate holding.

Explanation 1.— Where by act of parties or by operation of law, the interest of the tenant in his holding has been severed before the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, splitting up the holding into two or more parts, or where a portion of the holding has been sub-leased, before the commencement of this Act, each such part or, as the case may be, each of the portions retained by the tenant and sub-leased, shall be deemed to be separate holding.

Explanation II.— Any land in respect of which a person is deemed to be a tenant under Section 4, Section 4A, Section 5, Section 6, Section 6A, Section 6B, Section 7, Section 7A, Section 7B, Section 7C, Section 7D, Section 8, Section 9 or Section 10 or presumed to be a tenant under Section 11 shall be a holding for the purposes of this Act;

(18) the term "improvement" means any work or product of a work which adds to the value of the holding, and includes:

(a) the erection of dwelling houses, buildings appurtenant thereto and farm buildings;

(b) the construction of tanks, wells, channels, dams and other works for the storage or supply of water for agricultural or domestic purposes;

(c) the preparation of land for irrigation;

(d) the conversion of single crop into double-crop land;

(e) the drainage, reclamation from rivers or other waters or protection from floods or from erosion or other damage by water, of land used for agricultural purposes, or of waste-land which is cultivable;

(f) the reclamation, clearance, enclosure or permanent improvement of land for agricultural purposes;

(g) the renewal or reconstruction of any of the foregoing works or alterations therein or additions thereto and

(h) the planting or protection and maintenance of fruit trees, timber trees and other useful trees and plants;

(19) "intermediary" means any person who, not being a landowner, has an interest in the land and is entitled, by reason of such interest, to possession thereof, but has transferred such possession to any other person.

Explanation.— Where such a person has transferred possession only of a portion of the land which he is so entitled to possess, he shall be deemed to be an intermediary in respect of that portion;

(20) "joint family" means a Hindu undivided family, a Marumakkathayam tarwad or tavazhi, an Alisasanthana kutumba or kavaru or a Nambudiri Illam;
(21) "kaipad system of cultivation" means the system of cultivation, by whatever name called, under which paddy is cultivated on land which is saline either throughout the year or during any part of the year, by raising small mounds of earth and sowing seeds or planting seedlings thereon, whether the mounds are demolished after such sowing or planting or not;

(22) "kanam" means:

(a) The transfer for consideration, in money or in kind or in both, by a person of an interest in specific immovable property to another person, and described in the document evidencing the transaction as kanam or kanapattam, the incidents of which transfer include:

(i) a right in the transferee to hold the said property liable for the consideration paid by him or due to him;

(ii) the liability of the transferor to pay to the transferee interest on such consideration unless otherwise agreed to by the parties; and

(iii) payment of michavaram or customary dues, or renewal on the expiry of any specified period; or

(b) the transfer for consideration in money or in kind or in both by a person of an interest in specific immovable property to another person for the latter's enjoyment, whether described in the document evidencing the transaction as otti, karipanayam, panayam, pattapanayam, nerpanayam or by any other name and which has the incidents specified in sub-clauses (a) (i) and (a) (ii) and also one or more of the following incidents:

(A) renewal on the expiry of any specified period;

(B) payment of michavaram;

(C) payment of customary dues;

1[xx]

Explanation.— For the purposes of this clause, where there has been no stipulation in the document evidencing the transaction for renewal on the expiry of any specified period, but there has been a renewal or payment of renewal fees, it shall be deemed that there has been a provision for such renewal in the document;)

(23) "kanam-kuzhikanam" means a transfer by a landlord to another person of garden lands or of other lands or of both—

(i) with all or any of the trees, if any, standing thereon at the time of the transfer; or

(ii) without such trees.

for the purpose of planting trees or pepper vines or both thereon and for the enjoyment of the trees transferred, if any, the incidents of which transfer include:

(a) a right in the transferee to hold the said lands liable for the consideration paid by him or due to him, which consideration is called 'kanartham'; and

(b) the liability of the transferor to pay to the transferee interest on the kanartham unless otherwise agreed to by the parties;

3[xx]

(23A) "kara/ma" means a transfer of lands situate in the Kozhikode District or in the Ponmani taluk of the Malappuram District, in consideration of ground rent, principally for the purpose of erecting a homestead, and described as karaima in the document, if any, evidencing the transfer:

1. Omitted by Act 16 of 1976
2. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
3. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969
4. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
Explanation.— For the purpose of this clause, so much of the land appurtenant to the land under the Karaima belonging to the landlord or any person claiming through him and in the possession and beneficial enjoyment of the Karaima holder or his legal representative or any other person claiming through him as on the 24th day of January, 1989 shall, subject to a maximum of three cents in Corporation area, five cents in Municipal area and ten cents in Panchayat area, inclusive of the land under the Karaima, be deemed to be Karaima:

Provided that where the extent of the land appurtenant in the possession and beneficial enjoyment is in excess of the extent specified above as on the 24th day of January, 1989, such land shall also be deemed to be Karaima;

1[(23B) "Karilam" means:—

(a) lands generally known as karilam and situate in the District of Kottayam, Alleppey or Ernakulam; and

(b) lands, by whatever name known:—

(i) reclaimed from swampy areas called "kari" with black and loose peaty soil, the sub-soil of which consists of partially decomposed organic matter; and

(ii) in which paddy is cultivated, and situate in any part of the State;]

(24) “Kole nilam” means land in the bed of any koyal, or lake or any water-logged land in areas adjoining or lying within vicinity of any koyal, lake or river, on which paddy is cultivated by raising bunds on one or more sides and draining the water away by mechanical or other means, and includes—

(i) Kole or punjakole nilam in the Districts of Palghat and Trichur; and

(ii) water-logged land in the taluks of Hosdurg and Kasaragod commonly known as “Avi” land, on which paddy is cultivated by raising bunds on one or more sides and draining the water away by bailing;

1[(25) "Kudikidappukaran" means a person who has neither a homestead nor any land exceeding in extent three cents in any city or major municipality or five cents in any other municipality or ten cents in any panchayat area or township, in possession either as owner or as tenant, on which he could erect a homestead; and—

(a) who has been permitted with or without an obligation to pay rent by a person in lawful possession of any land to have the use and occupation of a portion of such land for the purpose of erecting a homestead; or

(b) who has been permitted by a person in lawful possession of any land to occupy, with or without an obligation to pay rent, a hut belonging to such person and situate in the said land, and "Kudikidappu" means the land and the homestead or the hut so permitted to be erected or occupied together with the easements attached thereto:]

[x x x]

Explanation I.— In calculating the total extent of the land of a kudikidappukaran for the purpose of this clause, three cents in a city or major municipality, shall be deemed to be equivalent to five cents in any other municipality, and three cents in a city or major municipality or five cents in any other municipality shall be deemed to be equivalent to ten cents in a panchayat area or township.

Explanation II.— For the purposes of this clause:—

(a) “Hut” means any dwelling house constructed by a person other than the person permitted to occupy it:—

(i) at a cost, at the time of construction, not exceeding seven hundred and fifty rupees; or

(ii) which could have at the time of construction, yielded a monthly rent not exceeding five rupees,

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Omitted by Act 17 of 1972
and includes any such dwelling house constructed by the kudikidappukaran in accordance with the provisions of Section 79; and

(b) "homestead" means, unless the context otherwise requires, any dwelling house erected by the person permitted to have the use and occupation of any land for the purpose of such erection, and includes any such dwelling house reconstructed by the kudikidappukaran in accordance with the provisions of Section 79.

1[Explanation IIA. — Notwithstanding any judgment, decree or order of any court, a person, who on the 16th day of August, 1968 was in occupation of any land and the dwelling house thereon (whether constructed by him or by any of his predecessors-in-interest or belonging to any other person) and continued to be in such occupation till the 1st day of January, 1970, shall be deemed to be a kudikidappukaran;

Provided that no such person shall be deemed to be a kudikidappukaran:—

(a) in cases where the dwelling house has not been constructed by such person or by any of his predecessors-in-interest, if—

(ii) such dwelling house was constructed at a cost, at the time of construction, exceeding seven hundred and fifty rupees; or

(iii) such dwelling house could have, at the time of construction, yielded a monthly rent exceeding five rupees; or

(b) if he has a building or is in possession of any land exceeding in extent three cents in any city or major municipality or five cents in any other municipality or ten cents in any panchayat area or township, either as owner or as tenant, on which he could erect a building;]

Explanation III. — Where any kudikidappukaran secures any mortgage with possession of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate, his kudikidappu right shall revive on the redemption of the mortgage, provided that he has at the time of redemption no other homestead or any land exceeding three cents in any city or major municipality or five cents in any other municipality or ten cents in any panchayat area or township, in possession either as owner or as tenant, on which he could erect a homestead.

Explanation IV. — Where a mortgagee with possession erects for his residence a homestead, or resides in a hut already in existence, on the land to which the mortgage relates, he shall, notwithstanding the redemption of the mortgage, be deemed to be a kudikidappukaran in respect of such homestead or hut, provided that at the time of the redemption:

(a) he has no other kudikidappu or residential building belonging to him, or any land exceeding three cents in any city or major municipality or five cents in any other municipality or ten cents in any panchayat area or township, in possession either as owner or as tenant, on which he could erect a homestead; and

(b) his annual income does not exceed two thousand rupees.

Explanation V. — Where a kudikidappukaran transfers his right in the kudikidappu to another person, such person shall be deemed to be a kudikidappukaran if—

(a) he has no other homestead or any land in possession, either as owner or as tenant, on which he could erect a homestead; and

(b) his annual income does not exceed two thousand rupees.

Explanation VI. — For the purpose of this clause, a person occupying any hut belonging to the owner of a plantation and situate in the plantation shall not be deemed to be a kudikidappukaran if such person was permitted to occupy that hut in connection with his employment in the plantation, unless—
(a) he was, immediately before the commencement of this Act, entitled to the rights of a kudikidappukaran or the holder of a protected ulkudi or kudikidappu under any law then in force; or

(b) he would have been entitled to the rights of a kudikidappukaran if the area in which that hut is situate had not been converted into a plantation subsequent to his occupation of that hut.

[Explanation VII.— For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that a person occupying a homestead or hut situate on a land held or owned by the Government of Kerala or the Government of any other State in India or the Government of India shall not be deemed to be a kudikidappukaran.]

COMMENTS

Surrender of excess land - Taluk Land Board cannot insist that they should get the full extent to be surrendered over looking the stand that certain extent of land had been treated and taken over as vested land. [See Thankamma Jacob v. State of Kerala 2003 (2) KLT 374]

[See Raveendran Achary v. Gouri Ponnamma 2002 (3) KLT SN 18]

Legal heirs of a deceased kudikidappukan who is in possession of the land is entitled to claim kudikidappu.
[Lakshmy Amma v. Narayanan Potti 2003 (1) KLT SN 18]

It may not be possible to hold that one of the legal representatives cannot maintain an application to purchase kudikidappu in his capacity as the legal representative of the deceased kudikidappukan and that non-joinder of the other legal heirs cannot vitiate the claim at all.
[Lakshmy Amma v. Narayanan Potti 2003 (1) KLT SN 18]

Claim of kudikidappu is not restricted to persons who came into possession of the property prior to 1-1-1970 and persons who came into possession of the property subsequent to 1 1-1970 are also entitled to claim kudikidappu right.
[Vidhyadharan v. Sivadas 2001 (2) KLT 605 & Maniyan v. Ramachandran 1999 (3) KLT 86]

It cannot be said that merely because annual rent value of the building under the assessment is fixed at a particular rate the building would not fetch a higher rent.
[Ibrahim Haji v. Damodaran Nair 1999 (1) KLT SN 32]

Once the claimant is a co-owner of whatever extent of land, he must be treated as a person who has no land on which he could erect a homestead, has preposterous legal implications.
[Kochukunju Nair v. Koshy Alexander 1999 (2) KLT 168]

Once the person in possession of the land has permitted the kudikidappukan to occupy the kudikidappu, he acquires all the rights conferred by the Act as kudikidappukan.
[Kunjjan Vasu v. Madhavan Achari 2002 (1) KLT 260]

CHAPTER II

PROVISIONS REGARDING TENANCIES EXEMPTIONS

3. Exemptions.— (1) Nothing in this Chapter shall apply to—

(i) leases of lands or of buildings or of both belonging to or vested in the Government of Kerala or the Government of any other State in India or the Government of India or a local authority [or the Cochin Port Trust] or a corporation owned or controlled by the Government of Kerala or the Government of any other State in India or the Government of India: [Provided that in the case of a sub-lease of Kandukrishi lands or a mortgage of such lands falling under Section 4A, granted or created by a tenant holding such lands under the Government, the provisions of Sections 13 to 26 shall, so long as the lease granted by the Government subsists, apply to the tenant or mortgagee holding under the sub-lease or mortgage, as the case may be, as they apply to a tenant holding lands other than Government lands.]

Explanation I.— "Lands belonging to or vested in the Government of Kerala" shall, for the purposes of this clause, have the same meaning as Government lands under Sub-section (1) of Section 2 of the Kerala Government Land Assignment Act, 1960, but leases subsisting at the commencement of this Act of lands escheated to the Government shall not be deemed to be leases of lands belonging to or vested in the Government of Kerala if the lessees or their predecessors-in-interest were in possession of the lands at the time of escheat as tenants under leases whether current or time-expired.

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
"Explanation IA. — Lands, the right, title and interest in respect of which have vested in the Government under Sub-section (9) of Section 66 or Section 72, shall not be deemed to be lands belonging to or vested in the Government of Kerala for the purposes of this clause.

Explanation IB. — For the purposes of this clause, lands held under leases whether current or time-expired at the time when such lands came to belong to or vested in a local authority shall not be deemed to be lands belonging to or vested in a local authority if the lessee or his successor-in-interest was continuing in possession of such lands at the commencement of this Act,

Explanation II. — For the purposes of this clause, kanadukrishi lands means lands covered by the Kandukrishi Proclamation 1124, and includes kanadukrishi pattam and kanadukrishi thanathu lands, but shall not include lands assigned on registry under the Kandukrishi Land Assignment Rules, 1958; or

(ii) leases only of buildings, including a house, shop or warehouse and the site thereof, with the land, if any, appurtenant thereto.

Explanation. — Permission given to a kudikidappukaran to occupy a hut shall not be deemed to be a lease of building for the purposes of this clause; or

(iii) leases of land or of buildings or of both specifically granted for industrial or commercial purposes; or

(iv) tenancies of land or of buildings or of both created by the Administrator-General or the Official Trustee or an Official Receiver or Officer appointed by a court under the provisions of any law, or by the court of wards, or by any person holding under or deriving title from any of the officers or the court aforesaid:

1[Provided that the provisions of this clause shall not apply to:

(a) a tenancy created in favour of a person who was a tenant under a lease whether current or time-expired on the date on which the land or building or both came under the control of any of the said officers or the court of wards; or

(b) a tenancy renewed in favour of any such person; or

(e) a tenancy created not less than thirty years before the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969 (whether subsequently renewed or not), by an officer appointed by a court under the provisions of any law, if such officer was, before the commencement of the legal proceedings in which he was so appointed, entitled to lease the land to which the tenancy relates:

Provided further that the provisions of this clause shall not apply or shall cease to apply to:

(a) tenancy created by the court of wards, where the landlord on whose behalf the tenancy was created has not terminated or does not terminate the tenancy by registered notice within a period of six months from the date on which the property was released from superintendence of the court of wards; or

(b) any tenancy created by an officer appointed by a court under the provisions of any law, where the person declared or found by the court to be entitled to possess the land or any person acting on his behalf has not instituted or does not institute legal proceedings to put him in possession of such land within a period of five years from the date on which such declaration or finding became final; or]

(v) tenancies in respect of land or of buildings or of both created by mortgagees in possession or by person deriving title from such mortgagees:
Provided that nothing in this clause shall apply to such tenancies:

(i) created before the commencement of this Act in Malabar; or

(ii) created before the 3rd day of March, 1943, in any area to which the Cochin Verumpattamars Act, VIII. of 1118, extended; or

(iii) created before the commencement of this Act, where the lessee is entitled to fixity of tenure under Section 4A; or

(iv) where the mortgagee or his successor-in-interest has acquired or acquires equity of redemption; or

(v) tenancies in respect of land or of buildings or of both created by persons having only life interest or other limited interest in the land or in the buildings or in both:

Provided that this clause shall not apply to a tenancy created by any person who was governed by the Madras Aliyasantha Act, 1949:

Provided further that the provisions of this Chapter other than Sections 53 to 72S shall apply to tenancies falling under clauses (v) and (vi) so long as the mortgagee or, as the case may be, the life interest or other limited interest subsists.

Explanation.-- For the Purpose of clause (vi), a sthani or trustee or owner of any temple, mosque, church, or other place of public religious worship or of any other public religious or charitable institution or endowment shall not be deemed to be a person having only life interest or other limited interest in ownership; or

(vii) Leases of private forests:

Provided that nothing in clauses (i) to (vii) shall apply in the cases of persons who were entitled to fixity of tenure immediately before the 21st January, 1961, under any law then in force or persons claiming under such persons; or (viii) tenancies in respect of plantations exceeding thirty acres in extent:

Provided that the provisions of this Chapter, other than Sections 53 to 72S shall apply to tenancies in respect of agricultural lands which are treated as plantations under sub-clause (c) of clause (44) of Section 2; or

[x x x]

(x) tenancies in respect of sites, tanks and premises of any temple, mosque or church [including sites belonging to a temple, mosque or church on which religious ceremonies are conducted] and sites of office buildings and other buildings attached to such temple, mosque or church, created by the owner, trustee or manager of such temple, mosque or church;

Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the right to which a tenant was entitled immediately before the commencement of this Act under the contract of tenancy or under any law then in force; or

(xi) lands transferred for felling trees; or

(xii) any transaction relating only to the usufruct of trees or to the tapping of coconut or other palm trees or to the tapping of rubber trees.

Explanation VII.— For the purposes of clause (c):

(i) improvements shall be deemed to be substantial improvements if the value thereof on the date of commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, is not less than twenty-five per cent of the market value of the land on that date;

(ii) a land shall be deemed to be waste land notwithstanding the existence of scattered trees thereon.

(2) Nothing contained in Sub-section (1) shall apply to a lessee if the lease was granted on or after the commencement of this Act.

5. Certain mortgagees with possession to be deemed tenants.— (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, a mortgagee with possession of immovable property situate in Cochin shall be deemed to be a tenant, if:

(a) the property comprised in the mortgage consists of agricultural land other than land planted with rubber, coffee, tea or cashew; and

(b) the interest on the mortgage amount is less than forty per cent of the total rent fixed in the mortgage document.

(2) \[\text{x x x}\]

6. Certain mortgagees who were holding land on verumpattam on or after 1st Chingam, 1111 to be deemed tenants.— (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, a mortgagee with possession of immovable property situate in Cochin shall be deemed to be a tenant, if:

(a) the property comprised in the mortgage consists of agricultural land;

1. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969
(b) he or his predecessor-in-interest was holding the property comprised in the mortgage as verumpattamdar on or after the first day of Chingam, 1111; and

(c) the verumpattam was terminated after the first day of Chingam, 1111 and before the commencement of this Act, but he or his predecessor-in-interest continued in possession of the property without interruption, as mortgagee with possession from the date of such termination till commencement of this Act.

16A. Certain persons who were holding land on or after 1st December, 1930, to be deemed tenants.—Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, a person in possession of immovable property in any area in the State to which the Malabar Tenancy Act, 1929, extended, whether as mortgagee or otherwise, shall be deemed to be a tenant if:

(a) the property in his possession consists of agricultural land;

(b) he or any of his predecessors-in-interest was holding the property as a tenant on or after the 1st day of December 1930: and

(c) the tenancy was terminated after the 1st day of December, 1930 and before the commencement of this Act, but his predecessors-in-interest or himself continued in possession of the property, without interruption, whether as a mortgagee with possession or otherwise, from the date of such termination till the commencement of this Act.

Explanation I.— For the purposes of clause (b), “tenant” means a tenant as defined in the Malabar Tenancy Act, 1929, as in force on the 1st day of November, 1956.

Explanation II.— An interruption for a period not exceeding an agricultural year immediately following the termination of the tenancy shall not deemed to be an interruption for the purposes of clause (c).

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
6B. Certain mortgagees in areas to which Malabar Tenancy Act extended to be deemed tenants.—Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgment, decree or order of court, a mortgagee with possession of immovable property at the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, in any area in the State to which the Malabar Tenancy Act, 1929, extended, shall be deemed to be a tenant, if:

(a) he was holding such property in consideration of payment of customary dues, or any amount specified as michavaram in the document evidencing the transaction; or

(b) there is a provision in such document for renewal on the expiry of a specified period.

16C. Certain lessees who have made substantial improvements, etc., to be deemed tenants.—Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 74, or in any contract, or in any judgment, decree or order of any court or other authority, any person in occupation at the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, of the land of another person on the basis of a lease deed executed after the 1st day of April, 1964, shall be deemed to be a tenant if:

(a) he (including any member of his family) did not own or hold land in excess of four acres in extent on the date of execution of the lease deed; and

(b) he or any member of his family has made substantial improvements on the land.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this Section, improvements shall be deemed to be substantial improvements if the value of such improvements is more than fifty per cent of the value of the land on the date of execution of the lease deed.

7. Certain persons occupying land honestly believing to be tenants, to be deemed tenants.—Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 52 or any other provision of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, or any other law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgment, decree or order of court, any person in occupation at the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, of the land of another situate in Malabar shall be deemed to be a tenant if he or his predecessor-in-interest was continuously in occupation of such land honestly believing himself to be a tenant for not less than two years within a period of twelve years immediately preceding the 11th day of April, 1967.

Explanation.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, where a person has been continuously in occupation of any such land for two years within the said period of twelve years, it shall be presumed until the contrary is provided that he has been in such occupation honestly believing himself to be a tenant.

The presumption can be rebutted not merely by direct evidence but also by other circumstances established in the case.

[Abdulla v. Narayani 2001(1) KLT 296]

In order to set up a case under Section 7 of the Act, it is necessary that the continued occupation is the property believing to be tenant shall be established.

[See Kuhiraman Nambiar v. Kerala Varma Raja 2000(1) KLT SN 43]

7A. Certain persons occupying land for not less than ten years to be deemed tenants.—Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 52 or any other provision of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, or in any other law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgment, decree or order of court, a person shall be deemed to be a tenant in respect of the land of another in his occupation if:

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
2. 7A to 7D Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
(a) he or his predecessor-in-interest occupied such land believing it to be the property of the Government;

(b) subsequent to such occupation such land has become the property of such other person as a consequence of any judgement, decree or order of any civil court; and

(c) such land has been in the continuous occupation of such person for a period of not less than ten years preceding the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969.

Explanation I. — In computing the period of occupation of a person for the purposes of clause (c), the period during which the predecessor-in-interest or predecessors-in-interest of such person was or were in occupation shall also be taken into account.

Explanation II:— For the purposes of this Section, a person shall be deemed to be in continuous occupation notwithstanding any order of court for delivery of possession to another person or any court record of dispossession.

7B. Certain persons occupying lands under leases granted by incompetent persons to be deemed tenants.— (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgment, decree or order of court, any person in occupation of the land of another at the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, on the basis of a registered deed purporting to be a lease deed, shall be deemed to be a tenant if he or his predecessor-in-interest was in occupation of such land on the 11th of April, 1957, on the basis of that deed, notwithstanding the fact that the lease was granted by a person who had no right over the land or who was not competent to lease the land.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgment, decree or order of court, any person who on the 11th day of April, 1957, was in occupation of the land of another and continued to be in occupation of such land till the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, shall be deemed to be a tenant if the court has delivered a judgment or passed an order before the date of publication of the Kerala Lands Reforms (Amendment) Bill, 1968, in the Gazette that the occupation by such person was on the basis of an oral permission or an unregistered deed purporting to be a lease deed granted by a person who had no right over the land or who was not competent to lease the land.

1[(3)] Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or in any other law or in any contract, custom or usage or in any judgment, decree or order of any court, any person in occupation of land on the basis of an oral permission or a deed purporting to be a lease deed, granted by a person governed by the Madras Aliasanthana Act, 1949 shall be deemed to be a tenant, if he or his predecessor-in-interest was in occupation of such land at the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969.]

7C. Certain persons who have paid amounts for occupation of land shall be deemed to be tenants.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgment, decree or order of court, any person who is in occupation of the land of another at the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, shall be deemed to be a tenant if he or his predecessor-in-interest has paid within a period of ten years immediately preceding such commencement any amount in consideration of such occupation or for the use and occupation of such land and has obtained a receipt for such payment from any person entitled to lease that land or his authorised agent or a receiver appointed by a court describing the payment as modavaram or nashtavaram or modanashtavaram or a receipt described as M.R. receipt.

7D. Certain persons occupying private forests or unsurveyed lands to be deemed tenants.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 52 or any other provision of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, or any other law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, any person in occupation at the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, of the land of another situate in Malabar, to which the provisions of the Madras Preservation of Private Forests Act, 1949 (XXVII of 1949), were applicable on the 11th day of April, 1955 or which was unsurveyed on that date, shall be deemed to be a tenant if he or his predecessor-in-interest was continuously in occupation of such land for not less than two years within a period of twelve years immediately preceding the 11th day of April, 1967.

17E. Certain persons who acquired lands to be deemed tenants.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 74 or Section 84 or in any other provision of this Act, or in any other law for the time being in force or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgement, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority, a person who at the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Act, 2004, is in possession of any land, not exceeding four hectares in extent, acquired by him or his predecessor-in-interest by way of purchase or otherwise on payment of consideration from any person holding land in excess of the ceiling area, during the period between the date of the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms Act, 1963 (1 of 1964), and the date of commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Act, 2004, shall be deemed to be a tenant.

8. Certain persons who were cultivating land on varam arrangement to be deemed tenants.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, any person who, by virtue of the provisions of Section 6 of the Kerala Stay of Eviction Proceedings Act, 1957, was entitled to cultivating any nilam after the 11th day of April, 1957, and was cultivating the nilam at the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be a tenant, notwithstanding the expiry of the term fixed under the varam arrangement.

9. Certain persons who surrendered leasehold rights but continued in possession to be deemed tenants.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, where, on or after the 11th day of April, 1957, a tenant holding lands less in extent than the ceiling area, had executed a deed surrendering his leasehold right to the landlord, but had not actually transferred possession of the land to the landlord before the commencement of this Act, such deed shall be deemed to be invalid and such person shall be deemed to be a tenant.

19A. Certain surrender documents to be inadmissible in evidence.— Where any tenant has executed before the 19th day of May, 1967, a deed surrendering or purporting to surrender to his landlord his leasehold rights in any land situate in the Taluk of Hosdurg or Kasaragode in the Kannanore District, such deed if unregistered shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, be inadmissible in evidence in any dispute regarding possession of such land between such tenant or any person claiming under or through him and such landlord or any person claiming under or through him.

10. Certain other persons to be deemed tenants.— Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, the following classes of persons shall be deemed to be tenants—

(i) a punam or kumri cultivator;
(ii) a licensee, [x x x]
(iii) a varamdar;
(iv) a weerupakuthidhar; and
(v) a person holding land situated in any part of the Taluk of Hosdurg or Kasaragode to which the Malabar Tenancy Act, 1929, did not extend, under a transaction described

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969
in the document evidencing it as bhogya, otti, matlotti, arwar, illadwar or krithasartha illidwar, but not being a usufructuary mortgage as defined in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882.

"11. Sambalapatnamdar, sambalachittudar etc., in certain areas to be presumed tenants.— Where in a document a person is described as a sambalapatnamdar, sambalachittudar or coolipattamdar, in respect of any nilam situate in the Palghat or Trichur District or in the Kuttanad area, or as a gaimakaradar or the holder of a gobrachittu or fazilichittu in respect of any land situate in the taluk of Hosdurg or Kasargode in the Cannanore District, he shall be presumed to be tenant for all purposes of this Act:

Provided that such presumption shall be rebutted if it is proved that the sambalapatnamdar, sambalachittudar, coolipattamdar or gaimakaradar or the holder of a gobrachittu or fazilichittu has not undertaken any risk of cultivation.

12. Right to prove real nature of transaction.— [1] Notwithstanding anything in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, or in any other law for the time being in force, or in any judgment, decree or order of court, any person interested in any land may prove that a transaction purporting to be a mortgage, otti, akaripanayam, panayam, nerpanayam or licence of that land is in substance a transaction by way of kanam, kanam-kuzhikanam, Kuzhikanam verumpattam or other lease, under which the transferee is entitled to fixity of tenure in accordance with the provisions of Section 13 and to the other rights of a tenant under this Act.

(2) Where under Sub-section (1) the Land Tribunal holds that the transferee is entitled to fixity of tenure in accordance with the provisions of Section 13, it shall be lawful for the Land Tribunal to pass an order containing directions regarding the application of the sum, if any, advanced to the landlord and making other suitable alterations in the terms recorded in the instruments executed by the parties.]

(3) Notwithstanding anything in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, or in any other law for the time being in force, a person described as an agent or servant in a document evidencing the contract for the cultivation of any nilam, may prove that he is a licensee.

COMMENTS

Section 12 does not permit this court to supersede the findings made by the court to the effect that the earlier lease came to an end with the execution of the transaction which purports to be a mortgage.

[Narayanaru Thrivikranaru v. Madhavan Potti 2000 (2) KLT 33]

Fixity of Tenure

13. Right of tenants to fixity of tenure.— (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, custom, usage or contract or in any decree or order of court, every tenant, shall have fixity of tenure in respect of his holding, and no land from the holding shall be resumed except as provided in Sections 14 to 22.

(2) Nothing in Sub-section (1) shall confer fixity of tenure on a tenant holding under a landlord—

(i) who is a member of the Armed Forces or is a seaman, if the tenancy was created by such landlord within a period of three months before he became a member of the Armed Forces or a seaman, or while he was serving as such member or seaman; or

(ii) who is the legal representative of the landlord referred to in clause (i):

Provided that no such landlord shall resume any land from his tenant, if he is already in possession of an extent of land not less than the ceiling area; and, where he is in possession of an extent of land less than the ceiling area, the extent of land that may be resumed shall not, together with land in his possession, exceed the ceiling area:
Provided further that a tenant holding under any such landlord shall have fixity of tenure in respect of his holding if the landlord does not claim resumption of the land comprised in the holding within six months from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969:

Provided also that where any such landlord is prevented by sufficient cause from not claiming resumption within the said period of six months and he claims resumption at any time before the date notified under Section 72, the right of such tenant to fixity of tenure in respect of the holding or part thereof to which the claim for resumption relates shall cease from the date of the application claiming resumption;

Provided also that such tenant shall have fixity of tenure in respect of his holding or part thereof from the date of the final rejection of such application in full or in part, as the case may be:

Provided also that the provisions of this Sub-section shall not apply to tenants who were entitled to fixity of tenure immediately before the 21st January, 1961, under any law then in force.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any contract, but subject to the provisions of Sub-sections (2), the landlord referred to in clause (i) or clause (ii) of Sub-section (2) shall be entitled to apply for the resumption from his tenant of the whole or part of his holding within six months from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969 or if such landlord is prevented by sufficient cause from applying for resumption within such period, at any time before the date notified under Section 72.

13A. Restoration of possession of persons dispossessed on or after 1st April, 1964.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, where any person has been dispossessed of the land in his occupation on or after the 1st day of April, 1964, such person shall, if he would have been a tenant under this Act as amended by the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, at the time of such dispossession, be entitled subject to the provisions of this Section to restoration of possession of the land:

Provided that nothing in this Sub-section shall:

(a) apply in any case where the said land has been sold to a bonafide purchaser for consideration before the date of publication of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Bill 1968, in the Gazette; or

(b) entitle any person to restoration of possession of any land which has been resumed under the provisions of this Act.

(2) Any person entitled to restoration of possession under Sub-section (1) may, within a period of six months from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, apply to the Land Tribunal for the restoration of possession of the land.

(3) The Land Tribunal may, after such inquiry as it deems fit; pass an order allowing the application for restoration and directing the applicant to deposit the compensation, if any, received by the applicant under any decree or order of court towards value of improvements or otherwise and the value of improvements, if any, effected on the land after the dispossession as may be determined by the Land Tribunal, within such period as may be specified in the order.

(4) On the deposit of the compensation and value of improvements as required in the order under Sub-section (3), the Land Tribunal shall restore the applicant to possession of the land, if need be be removing any person who refuses to vacate the same.

13B. Restoration of the possession of certain holdings sold for arrears of rent.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, where any holding has been sold in execution of any decree for arrears of rent, and the tenant has been dispossessed of the holding

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
3. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
after the 1st day of April, 1964, and before the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, such sale shall stand set aside and such tenant shall be entitled to restoration of possession of the holding, subject to the provisions of this Section:

Provided that nothing in this Sub-section shall apply in any case where the holding has been sold to a bonafide purchaser for consideration after the date of such dispossession and before the date of publication of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Bill, 1968, in the Gazette.

(2) Any person entitled to restoration of possession of his holding under Sub-section (1) may, within a period of six months from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, deposit the purchase money together with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum in the court and apply to the court for setting aside the sale and for restoration of possession of his holding.

(3) The court shall, if satisfied after such summary enquiry as the court deems fit, set aside the sale and may also order the applicant to deposit the costs, if any, payable to the decree holder.

(4) The court may also order the applicant to deposit in court such amount as may be specified by the court towards costs of the decree-holder or the auction purchaser and the value of improvements, if any, effected on the holding after the sale.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this Section, the term “holding” includes a part of a holding.

13C. Cancellation of certain sales for arrears of rent.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, where any holding has been sold in execution of any decree for arrears of rent accrued due before the 1st day of May, 1968, or any portion of such arrears, but the tenant has not been dispossessed, such tenant may, within six months from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, deposit in court an amount equal to the amount which he is liable to pay under Section 73 and apply to the court for setting aside the sale.

Explanation.—Where a tenant has been dispossessed by a receiver appointed by a court, such dispossession shall not be deemed to be dispossession for the purposes of this Sub-section.

(2) The court shall, if satisfied after such summary enquiry as the court deems fit, set aside the sale and may also order the applicant to deposit the costs, if any, payable to the decree holder.

(3) Where the amount deposited under Sub-section (1) is not found sufficient, the court shall not pass an order under Sub-section (2) unless the deficit amount is deposited in court within such period as the court may direct.

13D. Cancellation of certain sales for damages.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, where any holding has been sold after the 1st day of April, 1964, and before the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act 1969, for recovery of damages for committing waste on the holding, but the tenant has not been dispossessed, such tenant may, within six months from such commencement, deposit in court an amount equal to the purchase money together with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum and apply to the court for setting aside the sale.

(2) The court shall, if satisfied after such summary enquiry as the court deems fit, set aside the sale and may also order the applicant to deposit the costs, if any, payable to the decree-holder.

(3) Where the amount deposited under Sub-section (1) is not found sufficient, the court shall not pass an order under Sub-section (2) unless the deficit amount is deposited in court within such period as the court may direct.

(4) Where the holding has been sold to a purchaser other than the decree-holder, such person shall be entitled to an order from the court for repayment of his purchase money, with or without interest as the court may direct, against any person to whom it has been paid.
14. Resumption for extension of places of public religious worship.— A trustee or owner of a place of public religious worship may resume from a tenant the whole or any portion of his holding when the same is needed for the purpose of extending the place of public religious worship and the Collector of the district certifies that the same is so needed.

15. Resumption for construction of residential buildings.— A landlord (other than a shani or the trustee or owner of a place of public religious worship) who is not in possession of any land other than nilam, or is in possession of less than two acres in extent of such land and who needs the holding for the purpose of constructing a building bona fide for his own residence or for that of any member of his family may resume from his tenant:

(i) an extent of land not exceeding 20 cents, where resumption is sought on behalf of one person; and

(ii) an extent of land not exceeding 50 cents, where resumption is sought on behalf of two or more persons:

[Provided that, by such resumption, the total extent of land other than nilam in the possession of the landlord shall not be raised above two acres and the total extent of land in the possession of the tenant shall not be reduced below fifty cents]

Explanation.— For purposes of this Section and Section 16, “member of his family” shall mean—

(i) in the case of a landlord who has granted a lease on behalf of a joint family, member of such family; and

(ii) in any other case, wife or husband, as the case may be, or a lineal descendant of the landlord.

16. Resumption for personal cultivation from tenant holding more than ceiling area.— A landlord (other than a shani or the trustee or owner of a place of public religious worship) who requires the holding bona fide for cultivation by himself, or any member of his family, may resume from his tenant, who is in possession of land exceeding the ceiling area, the whole or a portion of the holding, subject to the condition that, by such resumption, the total extent of land in the possession of the landlord is not raised above the ceiling area and the total extent of land in the possession of the cultivating tenant is not reduced below the ceiling area.

Explanation I.— In this Section, references to the ceiling area in relation to the landlord or the tenant shall, where such landlord or tenant is a member of a family, be construed as references to the ceiling area in relation to that family.

Explanation II.— The provisions of Section 83 shall, so far as may be, apply to the calculation of the ceiling area for the purposes of this Section and Section 16A, provided that if no date has been notified under Section 83, the date of the application for resumption shall be deemed to be the date notified under Section 83.

16A. Resumption by small holder from tenants holding more than the ceiling area.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Section 17 or Section 18, a small holder (other than a shani or the trustee or owner of a place of public religious worship) may resume from his tenant, who is in possession of land exceeding the ceiling area, the whole or a portion of the holding, subject to the condition that by such resumption the total extent of land in the possession of the cultivating tenant is not reduced below the ceiling area and the total extent of land in the possession of the small holder is not raised above five acres:

Provided that no small holder shall be entitled to resume under this Section any land in the possession of a tenant who is a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe.

Explanation I.— In this Section, reference to the ceiling area in relation to the tenant shall, where such tenant is a member of a fami-

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969
3. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
ily, be construed as reference to the ceiling area in relation to that family.

Explanation II.—For the purposes of this Section and Section 18:

(a) "Scheduled Castes" means the Scheduled Castes in relation to the State as specified in the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1950;

(b) "Scheduled Tribes" means the Scheduled Tribes in relation to the State as specified in the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order, 1950;

(2) An application under Sub-section (1) shall be made within a period of six months from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969.

(3) Where more small holders than one apply for resumption of land from the same tenant and the extent of land in the possession of the tenant in excess of the ceiling area is less than the aggregate of the extent of land applied to be resumed by the small holders, the holders, the Land Tribunal shall allow resumption by all the small holders equitably having regard to all circumstances.

17. Resumption by small holder.—Without prejudice to the right of resumption under Section 16, a small holder (other than a sthani or the trustee or owner of a place of public religious worship) may resume from his tenant a portion of the holding not exceeding one half.

Provided that, by such resumption, the total extent of land in the possession of the small holder shall not be raised above [two and a half standard acres of five acres] in extent, whichever is greater:

Provided further that [x x x] no land shall be resumed under this Section from a tenant who was entitled to fixity of tenure in respect of his holding immediately before the 21st January, 1961, under any law then in force.

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969

18. General conditions and restrictions applicable to resumption under Sections 14, 15, 16 and 17.—Resumption of land under Sections 14, 15, 16 and 17 shall also be subject to the following conditions and restrictions, namely—

(1) no application for resumption shall be made after a period of one year from such commencement;

Provided that where the landlord is—

(i) a minor; or

(ii) a person of unsound mind; or

(iii) a member of the Armed Forces or a seaman and the tenant is entitled to fixity of tenure; or

(iv) a legal representative of such member or seaman, and such member or seaman was the landlord of the land in respect of which resumption is claimed, the application for resumption may be made within six months from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969:

Provided further that in the case of a landlord referred to in clause (iii) or clause (iv) of the foregoing proviso, the application for resumption may be made after expiry of the said period of six months and before the date notified under Section 72, if such landlord was prevented by sufficient cause from making the application within the said period of six months;

(2) the right of resumption in respect of a holding shall be exercised only once, and the order of the Land Tribunal allowing resumption shall be given effect only at the end of an agricultural year;

(3) no kudiyiruppu shall be resumed;

(4) no land in the possession of tenant who is a member of a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe shall be resumed.

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
19. Resumption of agricultural lands interspersed within plantations.— A landlord may resume from a tenant any holding or part of a holding comprising agricultural lands of the description specified in sub-clause (c) of clause (44) of Section 2, if such holding or part is, in the opinion of the Land Board, not or the Taluk Land Board, as the case may be, absolutely necessary for the purposes of the plantation.

Provided that the order of the Land Tribunal allowing resumption shall be given effect to only after the expiry of the period, if any, fixed under the contract of tenancy and only at the end of an agricultural year.

20. Tenants from whom land is resumed to be paid compensation for improvements and Solatium.— (1) A tenant from whom land is resumed under the provisions of this Act shall be entitled to —

(i) compensation for the improvements belonging to him; or

(ii) a solatium of an amount equal to the value of the gross produce from the land resumed for a period of two years; whichever is greater:

Provided that where the land resumed is comprised in a plantation, the tenant shall be entitled to the aggregate of the compensation referred to in clause (i) and the solatium referred to in clause (ii).

(2) The compensation payable under clause (i) of Sub-section (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Kerala Compensation for Tenants Improvements Act, 1958.

21. Priority for resumption.— Where in respect of any holding there are more landlords than one, the landlords mentioned below and in their order of priority shall be entitled to resumption:

(a) small holder;

(b) any person, other than a small holder, entitled fixity of tenure in respect of the holding immediately before the 21st January, 1961, under any law then in force;

(c) kanamdar not falling under item (a) or item (b);

(d) landowner, not being a small-holder;

Provided that where there are more landlords than one falling under the same category, the landlord nearer the cultivating tenant shall have preferential right over the landlord more remote.

22. Procedure for resumption.— (1) A landlord desiring to resume any land shall apply to the Land Tribunal within whose jurisdiction the land is situated for an order of resumption. The application shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(Explanation.— For the purposes of this sub Section, “landlord” shall include a landlord referred to in the clause (i) or clause (ii) of Sub-section (2) of Section 13.]

(2) The Land Tribunal shall duly enquire into the application and pass appropriate orders thereon. Where the order allows resumption, it shall specify the extent and location of the land allowed to be resumed, the rent payable in respect of the portion, if any, that would be left after resumption and such other particulars as may be prescribed and direct the landlord to make, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, payments to extinguish the rights of the cultivating tenant and the intermediaries, if any, who would be affected by such resumption.

(3) Land Tribunal may, for sufficient reasons extend the time prescribed under Sub-section (2) for making payments by the landlord.

(4) The cultivating tenants shall be entitled to opt for the location of the portion of the holding which may be allowed to be resumed; and where the tenant has not so opted, the location of the portion to be resumed shall be decided by the Land Tribunal having regard to the nature, fertility and other conditions of the portion of the land which may be allowed to be resumed and the portion left with the cultivating tenant.

2. Inserted by the KLR (Amendment) Act, 1979
3. Added by Act 35 of 1969
4. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
(5) Where the application is for resumption under Section 16 from a tenant who is in possession of land exceeding the ceiling area and there are other landlords under whom the tenant holds, the Land Tribunal shall give notice of the application to all other landlords so far as known to it, specifying a date within which they may apply for resumption of any land from such tenant. The Land Tribunal shall consider all applications from landlords for resumption from such tenant received within the specified time together, and, where the extent of land in the possession of the tenant in excess of the ceiling area is less than the aggregate of the extent of land applied to be resumed by the landlords, the Land Tribunal shall allow resumption by all the landlords equitably having regard to all circumstances.

(6) Where any land is resumed after making the payments as directed by the Land Tribunal, all the rights of the cultivating tenant and the intermediaries, if any, holding between the landlord resuming the land and the cultivating tenant in respect of the land, shall stand extinguished.

1[7] Where a landlord deposits the amounts in accordance with the directions of the Land Tribunal, the Land Tribunal shall put the landlord in possession of the land allowed to be resumed, if need by removing any person who refuses to vacate the same.

(8) Where a landlord fails to deposit the amounts in the accordance with the directions of the Land Tribunal, the order of resumption shall be treated as cancelled and the landlord shall have no further right for resumption.

23. Tenant's right to sue for restoration of possession of land. — (1) In any case in which any land has been resumed on the ground specified in Section 14 or Section 15 or Section 16 or Section 19, if, within three years of such resumption, the person who resumed the land fails without reasonable excuse to use the land for the purpose for which it was resumed, the cultivating tenant shall, subject to the provisions of Section 24, be entitled to apply to the Land Tribunal for the restoration to him of the possession of the land or a portion of the land which was resumed and to hold it with all the rights and subject to all the liabilities of a cultivating tenant:

Provided that a cultivating tenant shall not be entitled to restoration under this Sub-section if he is in possession of land equal to or exceeding the ceiling area, nor shall a cultivating tenant be entitled to restoration of an extent of land which together with the extend of land in his possession will exceed the ceiling area.

(2) The provisions of Section 22, shall, mutatis mutandis, be applicable to the form and procedure in regard to the application for restoration and the manner of execution of the orders of restoration.

24. Limitation for application for restoration under Section 23. — An application for restoration under Section 23 shall be made within one year from the expiry of three years after the resumption.

25. Persons entitled to restoration. — (1) Where restoration of any land resumed is ordered under Section 23, the cultivating tenant shall hold the land directly under the landlord from whom restoration has been ordered and the rights of the intermediaries extinguished under Sub-section (6) of Section 22 shall not revive.

(2) Before such restoration, the cultivating tenant shall pay to the person who resumed the land—

(i) the amount paid by such person to the cultivating tenant and to the intermediary, if any, towards the value of the improvements effected by them and existing at the time of restoration:

(ii) the value of the improvements, if any effected bonafide by such person between the date of resumption and the date of the application, and

(iii) any amount other than solatium received by the cultivating tenant from such person on account of the resumption.

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969
(3) The rent payable by the cultivating tenant after the restoration of the holding shall be the fair rent.

25A. Contract rent in the case of certain tenants.—(1) Where a person who is a tenant for the purposes of this Act, as amended by Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, was before the commencement of the said Amendment Act, not under an obligation to pay rent, the contract rent for the purposes of this Act shall be deemed to be—

(a) where there has been a stipulation in the document for the periodical payment of any amount by such person, such amount;

(b) in the case of a varamdar, the average of the share of the landlord in the paddy produce for the three years immediately preceding the commencement of this Act or where the varamdar was not cultivating the land continuously for the said period of three years, the share of the landlord for the year in which the varamdar cultivated the land last immediately before such commencement;

(c) in any other case, four rupees per acre.

(2) In the case of a cultivating tenant referred to in the Sub-section (3) of Section 25, the contract rent for the purposes of this Act shall be the contract rent or the proportionate contract rent in respect of the holding or part thereof which is resumed under this Act, at the time of resumption.

25B. Determination of proportionate rent.— Where by an act of parties or by operation of law, the interest of the tenant in his holding has been served, splitting up the holding into two or more parts, or where a portion of the holding has been sub-leased, and there is dispute as to the contract rent payable in respect of any such part or, as the case may be, the portion retained by the tenant or the portion sub-leased, the Land Tribunal may, on application by any person interested, determine the contract rent payable in respect of each such part of portion, as the case may be, on the basis of the normal produce from each such part or portion.

26. Recovery of arrears of rent.—(1) A landlord or any person claiming under him may apply to the Land Tribunal in such form as may be prescribed for recovery of arrears of rent due to him from his tenant.

(2) The Land Tribunal shall, after such enquiry as may be prescribed, determine the amount payable to the landlord and the person liable to pay the same:

Provided that where the amount claimed in the application does not exceed five hundred rupees, the Land Tribunal shall follow the procedure prescribed for the trial of small cause suits.

(3) The person liable to pay the amount determined under Sub-section (2) shall deposit the same with the Land Tribunal which determined the amount within a period of six months from the date of such determination.

(3A) In the event of the failure to deposit the amount referred to in Sub-section (3) within the time specified in that Sub-section, such amount shall, on a written requisition from the Land Tribunal to the District Collector, be recovered under the provisions of the Kerala Revenue Recovery Act, 1968, together with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date of determination of the amount under Sub-section (2).

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, no court or other authority or officer other than the Land Tribunal shall have jurisdiction to entertain any claim for arrears of rent.

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Substituted by the KLR (Amendment) Act 1979
27. Fair rent.— (1) The fair rent in respect of a holding shall be the rent payable by the cultivating tenant to his landlord.

(2) The fair rent shall be,—

(a) in the case of nilams, 50 per cent of the contract rent, or 75 per cent of the fair rent determined under any law in force immediately before the 21st January, 1961, or the rent calculated at the rates specified in schedule III applicable to the class of lands comprised in the holding, whichever is less;

(b) in the case of other lands, 75 per cent of the contract rent, or 75 per cent of the fair rent determined under any law in force immediately before the 21st January, 1961, or the rent calculated at the rates specified in schedule III applicable to the class of lands comprised in the holding, whichever is less:

Provided that the tenant may, by notice sent to the landlord by registered post, opt to pay—

(i) in the case of any nilam, 50 per cent of the contract rent, or 75 per cent of the fair rent determined under any law in force immediately before the 21st January, 1961, or the rent calculated at the rates specified in schedule III applicable to the class of lands comprised in the holding;

(ii) in the case of other lands, 75 per cent of the contract rent, or the fair rent determined under any law in force immediately before the 21st January, 1961, or the rent calculated at the rates specified in schedule III applicable to the class of lands comprised in the holding.

and where the tenant has so opted, such rent shall be deemed to be the fair rent for all purposes of this Act with effect from the beginning of the agricultural year in which such notice was sent to the landlord.

Explanation I.— Where in the case of a holding consisting of nilams and lands other than nilam, the rent for the nilam and the other lands is not separately specified in the contract of tenancy, the contract rent for the purposes of this Sub-section in respect of the nilam and the other lands shall be determined on the basis of the normal produce from the nilam and the normal produce from the lands other than nilam.

Explanation II.— Where in respect of a holding there is a stipulation in the contract of tenancy for the payment of interest by the transferor to the transferee, or for the payment by the transferee of land tax due to the Government or any tax or cess due to a local authority, the contract rent of that holding shall, for the purposes of this Section, be calculated after deducting such interest, tax and cess.

Explanation III.— For the purposes of this Section "nilam" includes a nilam converted into garden by the tenant’s labour.

28. Exclusion or certain lands from liability to fair rent.— Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 27, where any land included in a holding is set apart for communal purposes, and is used for such purposes, the extent of the land so set apart shall not be taken into account when determining the fair rent of the holding in accordance with that Section.

29. Preparation of record of rights.— (1) Any person interested in any land may at any time within ten years from the commencement of this Act or such further period as the Government, may, from time to time, by notification in the Gazette, specify in this behalf, apply to Tahsildar of the taluk in which that land is situate for the preparation of a record of rights in respect of that land;

Provided that no such application shall lie in cases where the land is situate in an area notified by the Government under Section 3 the Kerala Record of Rights Act, 1968.

(2) On receipt of an application under Sub-section (1) for the preparation of the record of rights in respect of any land, the Tahsildar shall prepare the record of rights in respect of that land in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The record of rights shall contain:

(a) the description and extent of the land;
(b) the name and address of the owner;
(c) the names and address of the intermediaries, if any, in respect of the land and the nature of the interest of each of such intermediaries;
(d) the names and address of the cultivating tenants and kudikidappukars, if any, in respect of the land and the nature of the interest of each of them;
(e) the names and address of other persons, if any, having interest in the land and the nature of the interest of each such person; and
(f) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(4) Any person aggrieved by any entry in the record of rights prepared by the Tahsildar under Sub-section (2) may, within such period as may be prescribed, appeal to the Revenue Divisional Officer having jurisdiction over the area in which the land is situate.

(5) An appeal under Sub-section (4) shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(6) On receipt of an appeal under Sub-section (4), the Revenue Divisional Officer shall, after giving an opportunity to all persons interested in the land to which the record of rights relates, dispose of the appeal in such manner as may be prescribed.

(7) The Tahsildar and the Revenue Divisional Officer shall, for the purpose of the proceeding under this Section, have all the powers of a civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely—

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
(b) requiring the discovery and production of any document;
(c) receiving evidence on affidavit;
(d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or for local investigation; and
(e) any other matter which may be prescribed.

(8) The record of rights prepared under this Section shall be admissible in evidence before any court or tribunal and every entry in any record of rights which has become final shall until the contrary is provided be presumed to be correct.

(9) Where an application for the preparation of a record of rights in respect of a land is admitted, no application under Section 31 for determination of the fair rent in respect of that land shall be disposed of till the record of rights prepared under this Section.

(10) Where the proceeding for the preparation of a record of rights are pending before the Tahsildar or an appeal under this Section is pending before the Revenue Divisional Officer at the time when the area in which the land to which the record of rights relates is situate in notified by the Government under Section 3 of the Kerala Record of Rights Act, 1968, the Tahsildar or the Revenue Divisional Officer as the case may be, shall transfer such proceeding or appeal to the prescribed officer under the said Act for the preparation of the record of rights in accordance with the provisions of that Act.]
1(29A) Bar of proceedings under Chapter XII of the Code of Criminal Procedure in certain cases.— (1) Where a person claiming to be a tenant applies for the preparation of a record of rights or for the determination of the fair rent or for the purchase of the right, title and interest of the landlord and the intermediaries, if any, in respect of the land cultivated by him, then, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, no Magistrate shall have jurisdiction under Chapter XII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, in respect of a dispute between that person and any other person claiming to be in possession of that land relating to that land, pending disposal of the application.

(2) Where, in respect of any land, proceedings under Chapter XII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, were initiated while proceedings for the determination of the fair rent in respect of that land were pending and the possession of the land was handed over to the landlord in the proceedings under the said chapter XII, and a suit to declare the right to possession of such land was pending in any civil court of competent jurisdiction on the date of publication of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Bill, 1968, in the Gazette, then notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter XII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, or order of any court or any record regarding possession, the person who applied for the determination of the fair rent his successor-in-interest shall,—

(a) if he was actually in possession on such date, be entitled to continue in possession of such land subject to the final decision in such suit; and

(b) if he was not in possession on such date, be entitled to restoration of possession and to continue such possession till the final decision in such suit.

(3) Any person who is entitled to be restored to possession of any land under Sub-section (2) may make an application in writing within a period of six months from the commencements of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, to the Revenue Divisional Officer having jurisdiction over the area in which the land is situated for the restoration of possession of such land.

(4) The Revenue Divisional Officer shall, on receipt of an application under Sub-section (3), make or cause to be made necessary enquiries in respect of such application and if he is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to restoration of possession under Sub-section (2), he shall by order direct the person in possession of the land to deliver possession of the same to the applicant within a period of thirty days from the date of service of the order:

Provide that no order under this Sub-section shall be made unless the person who is in possession of the land has been given an opportunity of being heard in the matter.

(5) Every order made under Sub-section (4) shall be served in such manner as may be prescribed.

(6) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Revenue Division Officer under Sub-section (4) may, within a period of thirty days from the date of service of the order, prefer an appeal to the Collector of the district in which the land is situate, and the order of the collector on such appeal be final.

(7) Where an order made under Sub-section (4) has not been complied with, and—

(a) no appeal has been preferred within the time allowed for such appeal; or

(b) an appeal having been preferred has been dismissed, the Revenue Divisional Officer shall cause the land to be delivered to the applicant by putting him in possession of the land, and if need be, by removing any person who refuses to vacate the same.]
(2) The Tahsildar shall, on receipt of an application under Sub-section (1) and after such enquiry as he deems necessary and after issue of notice to the opposite party, by order decide whether the applicant is entitled to cultivate the land, and if the applicant is entitled to cultivate, and is not in possession of the land, the Tahsildar shall also restore him to possession and allow him to cultivate that land.

(3) In any suit relating to any land in respect of which an application has been presented before the Tahsildar under Sub-section (1) instituted by the opposite party after the date of such application, the court shall not grant an injunction restraining the applicant from cultivating the land, till the final decision in such suit.

30. Rent payable by an intermediary.—Where in respect of a holding there is an intermediary at the commencement of this Act and as a result of the determination of the fair rent there has been a reduction in the rent payable by the cultivating tenant, the rent payable by the intermediary to his landlord shall be reduced in the same proportion as the rent to which he was entitled was reduced.

30A. Jenmikaram payable where rent payable to kanam tenant is reduced.—Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, where in respect of a holding the landowner is a kanam tenant as defined in the Kanam Tenancy Act, 1955, and as a result of the determination of the fair rent is respect of that holding there has been a reduction in the rent payable to such landowner, the jenmikaram payable by such landowner in respect of that holding and accrued after the 1st day of May, 1966, before the commencement of the Kanam Tenancy Abolition Act, 1976, shall be reduced in the same proportion as the rent to which he was entitled was reduced.

31. Determination of fair rent by Land Tribunal.—(1) The cultivating tenant or any landlord may apply, in such form as may be prescribed, to the Land Tribunal for determining the fair rent in respect of a holding.

45. Tenant's right to obtain receipt.— (1) Every tenant paying any rent shall be entitled to receive and the landlord shall be bound to grant a receipt containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) If any landlord fails to grant a receipt as provided under Sub-section (1), the tenant shall be entitled to send by money order, after deducting the charges for doing so,

(i) the money, if the rent is payable in money; and

(ii) the money value of the rent, if it is payable in kind.

45A. Rent appropriated for period of stay to be adjusted towards rent for period after 1st May, 1966.— (1) Where, after the 19th day of May, 1967 and before the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, any tenant has paid or deposited any amount by way of rent, and such amount has been appropriated towards arrears of rent accrued due for the period prior to the 1st day of May, 1966, then notwithstanding anything contained in any law, or in any contract, custom or usage, or in any judgment, decree or order of any court or Land Tribunal, such amount shall be adjusted towards the rent accrued due for the period commencing on the 1st day of May, 1966.

(2) Where, in any judgment, decree or order of any court or Land Tribunal passed after the 19th day of May, 1967, any amount paid or deposited by way of rent has been allowed or ordered to be appropriated towards arrears of rent accrued due for the period prior to the 1st day of May, 1966, such judgement, decree or order shall, on application within sixty days from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, be re-opened by the court of Land Tribunal, as the case may be which passed such judgement, decree or order, and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Sub-section (1).

46. Application to Land Tribunal when landlord refuses to accept a tender.— [(1) The tenant may apply to the Land Tribunal in the prescribed manner for permission to pay the arrears of rent due by him for any period through the Land Tribunal:

Provided that no such application shall be made, if an application or other proceeding for the recovery of such arrears is pending before the Land Tribunal.]

(2) Along with the application under Sub-section (1) the tenant shall deposit with the Land Tribunal the said dues together with interest, if any, accrued thereon.

47. Procedure on application under Section 46.— (1) When an application and deposit have been made under Section 46, the Land Tribunal shall cause written notice thereof to be given at the cost of the applicant to every person who, in the opinion of the Land Tribunal is entitled to be heard thereon, and after hearing such of them as appear, by order, determine —

(a) the amount of arrears due from the tenant for the period specified in the application under Sub-section (1) of Section 46 together with interest upto the date of deposit and costs, if any; and

(b) the person or persons who is or are entitled or bound to receive such amount.

(2) If the amount deposited by the tenant under Sub-section (2) of Section 46 is less than the amount referred to in clause (a) of Sub-section (1), the tenant shall deposit the balance amount due within such time as may be directed by the Land Tribunal.

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
(3) If the tenant fails to deposit any amount under Sub-section (2) within the time allowed by the Land Tribunal in that behalf, the application shall be dismissed.

(4) The Land Tribunal may also make such directions regarding costs, if any, awarded to the applicant and such other matters as the Land Tribunal may deem fit.

(5) The deposit of arrears of rent and interest and costs, if any, in accordance with the provisions of this Section and Section 46 shall be a full discharge of the liability of the tenant for the rent due by him for the period specified in the application.

(6) Nothing in Sub-section (5) shall affect the right of any person to recover the amount deposited by the tenant towards arrears of rent and interest from the person to whom it is paid by the Land Tribunal].

48. Apportionment of rent on severance of interest of landlord or tenant.— [(1) Where, by act of parties or by operation of law, the interest of the landlord or of the tenant in the land demised has been severed, or a portion of the land demised has been sub-leased, the landlord or the tenant may apply to the Land Tribunal for the apportionment of the rent and the security for rent, if any.]

(2) The application shall be in such form as may be prescribed.

(3) The Land Tribunal shall, after giving an opportunity to all persons interested to be heard, pass an order on such application apportioning the rent and the security for rent, if any, and directing the execution of a lease deed on the basis of such apportionment, within a specified period and make such order as to the costs of the application as it may deem fit.

(4) If, within the time fixed by the Land Tribunal, such deed is not executed, the Land Tribunal shall, on the application of the person in whose favour such deed is to be executed and on the deposit by such person of such amount as the Land Tribunal may direct, execute the deed on behalf of the person in default; and the Land Tribun-

49. Notice to landlord and intermediary when the interest in the holding of the tenant is acquired.— (1) Any person deriving an interest in the holding or part of the holding of a tenant by virtue of a title acquired by act of parties or by operation of law shall, where such interest is acquired after the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969[,] within sixty days from the date of such acquisition, give registered notice of his interest in the holding or part of the holding to the landlord and the intermediaries, if any. The said notice, shall contain particulars of the property, its extent, the nature of the interest acquired and the date of acquisition of such interest.

(2) Where default is made by a tenant in the payment of rent, his landlord shall give registered notice of the default to the persons who have acquired interest in the holding or part of the holding prior to the date of such default and who have notified the existence of their interest under Sub-section (1). The persons having interest in the holding shall be entitled to pay the arrears and the landlord shall be bound to receive such payment:

Provided that a person who has acquired interest only in a part of the holding, shall be bound to pay only so much of the rent or arrears of the same, as will on apportionment fall on such portion of the holding.

(3) Where there has been no agreement among the persons interested as to the apportionment referred to in the proviso to Sub-section (2), the person who has acquired interest in the part of the holding may, within sixty days from the date of service of the notice of default, apply to the Land Tribunal for the apportionment, and the Land Tribunal shall, by order, make the apportionment.

50. Rights of tenant to be heritable and alienable.— Subject to the provisions of this Act, all rights which a tenant has in his holding shall be heritable and alienable.

1[50A. Extent of tenant's right to use his holding. — Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or contract, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, a tenant entitled to fixity of tenure shall have the right to use his holding in any manner he thinks fit:

Provided that nothing contained in this Section shall be deemed to empower the tenant to use the holding in contravention of any order issued under the Essential Commodities Act, 1955.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or contract, or in any judgement, decree or order of court, where the tenant in respect of a nilam is a varamdar and the fishing right in that nilam is exercised by the landlord, such right of the landlord shall cease to exist and the tenant shall be entitled to exercise such right.]

51. Surrender by tenant. — 2[(1)] Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a tenant may terminate the tenancy in respect of any land held by him at any time by surrender of his 3[interest therein:

Provided that no such surrender shall be made in favour of any person other than the Government:]

3[Provided further that] such surrender shall not be effective unless it is made in writing and is admitted by the tenant before the Land Tribunal 4[x x x] and is registered in the office of the Land Tribunal in the prescribed manner:

4[x x x]

5[(2) The Government shall pay to the landlord fair rent of the tenancy surrendered to it under Sub-section (1).

(3) The Government may let any land surrendered to it under Sub-section (1) to any person, as far as may be, in accordance with such rules as may be made under this Act.

(4) The tenant to whom any land is let under Sub-section (3) shall pay the fair rent thereof directly to the landlord and the Government shall pay the landlord the Government’s liability under Sub-section (2) with regard to the payment of the rent of that land, on and from the date of induction of the tenant on such land, cease.]

1[51A. Abandonment by a tenant. — (1) No landlord shall enter on any land which has been abandoned by a tenant,

2[(2) If a tenant abandons his holding and ceases to cultivate the holding either by himself or by some other person, the Government may, after notice to the tenant and the landlord and after hearing objections, if any, take possession of the land comprised in the holding.

(3) The Government shall pay to the landlord fair rent for the land taken possession of by them under Sub-section (2), from the date on which they take possession of such land.

(4) The Government may let to another tenant any land, possession of which has been taken under Sub-section (2), as far as may be in accordance with such rules as may be made under this Act.

(5) The tenant to whom any land is let under Sub-section (4) shall pay the fair rent thereof directly to the landlord and the Government’s liability under Sub-section (3) with regard to the payment of the fair rent for such land shall, on and from the date of induction of the tenant on the land cease.

51B. Landlord not to enter on surrendered or abandoned land. — If any landlord enters into the possession of any abandoned land or any land which has not been surrendered in accordance with the provisions of Section 51, he shall be deemed to have contravened the provisions of Section 6 of the Kerala Prevention of Eviction Act, 1966, and shall be punished accordingly.]
52. Rights as to timber trees.—(1) Notwithstanding any law, custom or contract to the contrary, all timber trees planted by the cultivating tenant or his predecessor in interest or spontaneously sprouting and growing in the holding after the commencement of the tenancy in favour of the cultivating tenant or his predecessor in interest, shall belong to the cultivating tenant.

(2) Subject to the provisions of Sub-sections (3) and (5), in the case of timber trees standing in the holding of a cultivating tenant at the commencement of his tenancy, the cultivating tenant shall have the right to cut and remove such trees, and the landlord or the intermediary shall not have the right to cut and remove such trees.

(3) Where the cultivating tenant exercises his right under Sub-section (2), he shall be liable to pay to the landowner or the intermediary, as the case may be, one-half of the market value of the timber trees so cut and removed.

(5) The right conferred by Sub-section (2) shall not be exercisable unless reasonable notice thereof in writing is given to the party to be affected by the exercise of the said right.

(6) If any dispute arises as to the rights of the landowner, intermediary and cultivating tenant over timber, trees, the Land Tribunal shall, on the application of the landowner, intermediary or cultivating tenant, by order, decide the question after hearing all the persons interested.

PURCHASE OF LANDLORD’S RIGHTS BY CULTIVATING TENANTS

53. Cultivating tenant’s right to purchase landlord’s rights.—(1) [A cultivating tenant (including the holder of a kudiyiruppu, and the holder of a karai ma)], entitled to fixity of a tenure under Section 13, shall be entitled to purchase the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, in respect of the land comprised in his holding:

Provided that —

(i) if the landlord is entitled to resume any portion of the holding under this Act and he applies for such resumption, the cultivating tenant shall be entitled to purchase the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries only in respect of the remaining portion of the holding;

(ii) no cultivating tenant shall be entitled to purchase the right, title and interest in respect of any land under this Section if he, or if he is a member of a family, such family, owns an extent of land not less than the ceiling area;

(iii) Where the cultivating tenant or, if he is a member of a family, such family, does not own any land or owns an extent of land which is less than the ceiling area, he shall be entitled to purchase the right, title and interest in respect of only such extent of land as well, together with the land, if any, owned by him or his family, as the case may be, equal to the ceiling area.

Explanation.—In calculating the extent of land owned by the cultivating tenant or, where he is a member of a family, by such family, for the purposes of clause (ii) or clause (iii) of the proviso to this Sub-section, the portion of the land owned by such cultivating tenant or by the family, which is liable to be purchased by the cultivating tenants holding under such tenant or family, shall not be taken into account.

1[(2) The provisions of Section 82 shall, so far as may be, apply to the calculation of the ceiling area for the purposes of Sub-section (1):]

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969

2. Ommitted by Act 35 of 1969
Provided that if no date has been notified under Section 83, the date of application by the cultivating tenant under Section 54 shall be deemed to be the date notified under Section 83.]

54. Application for purchase of landlord's rights by cultivating tenants.—(1) A cultivating tenant entitled to purchase the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries under Section 53 may apply to the Land Tribunal for the purchase of such right, title and interest.

(2) The application for the purchase under Sub-section (1) shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

1\[x x x]\]

(4) Where a cultivating tenant is entitled to purchase the right, title and interest in respect of only a portion of the land held by him, he may indicate in the application, his choice of the portion, the right, title and interest over which he desires to purchase.

55. Purchase price.—The price payable by the cultivating tenant for the purchase of the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, shall be the aggregate of:

(i) sixteen times the fair rent in respect of the holding or part thereof to which the purchase relates;

(ii) the value of structures, wells and embankments of a permanent nature belonging to the landowner or the intermediaries, if any; and

(iii) one-half of the value of timber trees belonging to the landowner or the intermediaries, if any:

2[Provided that where the aggregate of the value of structures, wells and embankments and one-half of the value of timber trees referred to in clauses (ii) and (iii) exceeds sixteen times the fair rent in respect of the holding or part thereof to which the purchase relates, such aggregate value shall, for the purpose of calculating the purchase price, be limited to sixteen times, such fair rent.]

1. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969

Explanation.—For the purposes of this Section; where the rent is payable in kind, the money value of the rent shall be computed at the average of the prices of the commodity for the six years immediately preceding the year of determination of the purchase price, and, in calculating the average of the prices, the prices, if any, published under Section 43 may also be taken into account.

56. Purchase price to be distributed among the landowner and intermediaries.—(1) Where the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries in respect of a holding have been purchased by the cultivating tenant, the purchase price paid by the cultivating tenant shall be paid to the landowner or apportioned among the landowner and the intermediaries, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of Sub-sections (2) and (3).

(2) Where there is no intermediary, the landowner shall be entitled to the entire purchase price paid by the cultivating tenant.

(3) Where there is an intermediary or there are intermediaries—

(i) the amount of 16 times the fair rent paid by the cultivating tenant shall be apportioned among the landowner and the intermediary or intermediaries in proportion to the profits derived by them from the holding; and

(ii) the value of structures, wells and embankments of a permanent nature and one-half the value of the timber trees paid by the cultivating tenant shall be payable to the landowner or the intermediary to whom such structures, wells, embankment, and timber trees belong:

1[Provided that where the aggregate of the value of structures, wells and embankments and one-half of the value of timber trees has been limited to sixteen times the fair rent under the proviso to Section 55, the amount payable under this clause to the landowner and the intermediary or intermediaries shall be sixteen times such fair rent apportioned among the landowner and intermediary or intermediar-] ies in proportion to the value of the structures, wells, embankments and timber trees belonging to each of them.]

Explanation—"Profits derived from the holding" shall, for the purposes of this Sub-section, mean, in the case of the landowner, the rent to which he is entitled and, in the case of an intermediary, the difference between the rent due to him from his tenant and the rent for which the intermediary is liable to his landlord. [and where there is no evidence as to the rent for which the intermediary is liable to his landlord, it shall be presumed that such rent is one-half of the rent payable to the intermediary by his tenant.]

57. Procedure before the Land Tribunal.—(1) As soon as may be after the receipt of the application under Section 54, the Land Tribunal shall give notice to the landowner, the intermediaries and all other persons interested in the holding, to prefer claims or objections with regard to the application, [x x x]

(2) The Land Tribunal shall, after considering the claims and objections received and hearing any person appearing in pursuance of the notice issued under Sub-section (1) and after making due enquiries, pass orders:

(i) on the application, if any, [pending before it] from the landowner or intermediary for resumption, in accordance with the provisions of Section 22; and

(ii) on the application for purchase under Section 54.

(3) Where the cultivating tenant is entitled to purchase only a portion of the land left after resumption, the Land Tribunal shall, as far as possible, allow the purchase of the portion indicated in the application under Sub-section (3) of Section 54.

[(3A) Where the right, title and interest of the landowner or the intermediary vested in the cultivating tenant form part of the security for any encumbrance or charge for maintenance or alimony, the Land Tribunal shall, for the purpose of discharging the same, apportion the entire encumbrance or the charge for the maintenance or alimony between the portion of the land, the right, title and interest over which vested in the tenant and the portion remaining after such vesting, in proportion to the values of the two portions of the property; and discharge only the liability pertaining to the portion to which the purchase relates.]

(4) An order under clause (ii) of Sub-section (2) allowing the application shall specify:

(i) the purchase price payable by the cultivating tenant;

(ii) the amount due to the landowner and each of the intermediaries, if any, on the apportionment of the purchase price paid by the cultivating tenant;

(iii) the value of encumbrances subsisting or claims for maintenance or alimony charged on the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any;

(iv) the amount payable to the holder of the encumbrance or the person entitled to the maintenance or alimony [and the order of priority in which such amount is payable]; and

(v) the amount payable to the landowner and each of the intermediaries after deducting the value of the encumbrances or the claims for maintenance or alimony.

(5) If the landowner or intermediary is liable to pay any amount to the cultivating tenant under this Act, the Land Tribunal shall, in passing orders on the application for purchase, set off such amount against the purchase price payable to the landowner or the intermediary.

(6) The Land Tribunal shall, as soon as may be, forward a copy of the orders under Sub-section (2) to the Land Board.

2. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969
3. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969

---

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
58. Purchase price payable in instalments or in lump.— The purchase price determined under Section 57 shall be payable in sixteen equal annual installments:

Provided that where the purchase price is less than Rs. 160, the number of instalments shall be so fixed by the Land Tribunal that the amount payable in each instalment shall not be less than Rs. 10:

Provided further that it shall be open to the cultivating tenant to pay the entire purchase price in a lump, in which case the amount payable shall be only seventy-five per cent of the purchase price.

59. Deposit of purchase price and issue of certificate of purchase.— (1) Where an application under Section 54 has been allowed and the purchase price determined under Section 57 by the Land Tribunal, the cultivating tenant shall deposit with the Land Tribunal to the credit of the Land Board:

(i) where the purchase price is proposed to be paid in a lump, the entire amount due within one year; or

(ii) Where the purchase price is proposed to be paid in instalments, the first instalment thereof within 1[six months] from the date on which the order of the Land Tribunal under Section 57 has become final.

2[Provided that Land Tribunal may, on application by the cultivating tenant before the expiry of the said period of one year of six months, as the case may be, extend the period for making such deposit, so however that the period so extended shall not exceed three months.]

(2) On the deposit of the purchase price in a lump or of the first installment of such price, the Land Board shall issue a certificate of purchase to the cultivating tenant and thereupon the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, shall vest in the cultivating tenant free from all encumbrances with effect from the date of the application under Section 54.] The certificate of purchase shall be conclusive proof as the purchase by the tenant of the right, title and interest of the landowner and intermediary, if any, over the holding or portion thereof.

1[Explanation.— For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that on the issue of the certificate of purchase, the landowner or any intermediary shall have no right in the land comprised in the holding and all his rights including rights, if any, in respect of trees reserved for his enjoyment shall stand extinguished.]

(3) Where a cultivating tenant fails to deposit the purchase price in lump or the first instalment thereof, on or before the due date, the order of the Land Tribunal under Section 57 shall stand cancelled and the cultivating tenant shall continue as cultivating tenant.

(4) Where the purchase price is paid in instalments, the second and subsequent instalments shall be deposited in the Government treasury in the prescribed manner to the credit of the Land Board.

60. Interest on defaulted instalments.— If the second or any subsequent instalment of the purchase price is not deposited on the due date, the amount of such instalment shall bear interest at the rate of 4\% per cent per annum from that date till the date of deposit of that instalment.

61. Cultivating tenant to pay rent pending determination of purchase price.— (1) Notwithstanding the filing of an application under Section 54, the cultivating tenant shall, pending the determination of the purchase price under Section 55 or, where there has been an appeal against the determination of the purchase price, pending orders on such appeal, deposit with the Land Tribunal an amount equal to the rent which would have been payable by him on the dates on which such rent would have become due if the land were not purchased:

Provided that the Land Tribunal may:

1. Inserted by Act 16 of 1976
2. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
(a) on application by the cultivating tenant for sufficient reason allow the applicant to make the deposit after the due date;

(b) allow any cultivating tenant to deposit the balance amount, if any, where the amount deposited is found to be less than the amount of rent.

(2) The Land Tribunal shall, after intimating the Landlord, pay the amount deposited under Sub-section (1) to the landowner and intermediaries if any, as part payment of the purchase price on taking proper security in case it is found that they are entitled to such amount.

(3) The amount deposited under Sub-section (1) shall be deducted from the purchase price payable by the cultivating tenant and he shall be liable to pay only the balance.

62. Recovery of instalments of purchase price on default. — For the purchase price payable by the cultivating tenant, there shall be a first charge on the land to which the purchase relates, subject to the charges for any dues payable to the Government. Where the second or any subsequent installment is not deposited on the due date, the Land Board may, on application from any person entitled to the installment of the purchase price in default or any part thereof, pass an order directing the payment of the amount [together with interest thereon] and the order of the Land Board may be executed through the court as if it were a decree passed by it:

Provided that where the right, title and interest of the landowner or intermediary which is a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature have vested in the Government under Section 66, the installment of the purchase price in default or any part thereof due to the Government [together with interest thereon] shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue under the provisions of the Revenue Recovery Act for the time being in force.

63. Payment of purchase price, amount of encumbrance, maintenance or alimony. — (1) The purchase price payable to the landowner and the intermediaries shall be distributed by the Land Board according to the provisions of Sub-sections (2) to (9).

(2) Where the right, title and interest of the landowner or the intermediaries are not subject to any encumbrance or charge for maintenance or alimony, the purchase price paid by the cultivating tenant shall be paid to the landowner or apportioned among the landowner and the intermediaries in the manner specified in Sub-section (2) or Sub-section (3), as the case may be, of Section 56.

(3) Where the right, title and interest of the landowner or any intermediary in respect of a holding are subject to any encumbrance or charge for maintenance or alimony, the purchase price paid by the cultivating tenant shall:

(i) if there is no intermediary, be paid to the landowner after deducting the value of encumbrance or charge for maintenance or alimony;

(ii) if there is an intermediary, or there are intermediaries, be apportioned among the landowner and the intermediary or intermediaries in the manner specified in Sub-section (2) or Sub-section (3), as the case may be, of Section 56, and the value of the encumbrance, maintenance or alimony shall be deducted from the purchase price payable to the landowner or the intermediary or intermediaries, as the case may be and the balance amount shall be paid to the landowner or intermediary or intermediaries. If the total amount of such encumbrance, maintenance or alimony is equal to or more than the amount of the purchase price payable to the landowner or the intermediary, the whole amount shall be reserved for payment to the holder of the encumbrance, or the person entitled to the maintenance or alimony and no amount shall be paid to the landowner or the intermediary, as the case may be.

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
(5) Where any amount has been deducted or reserved for payment to the holders of the encumbrances or the persons entitled to the maintenance or alimony, the same shall be paid in their order of priority to the persons entitled thereto.

(6) Where the cultivating tenant pays the purchase price in instalments, the amount of each instalment shall be distributed in the manner specified above. The interest on the purchase price paid by the cultivating tenant shall also be paid to the landowner, intermediary, holder of the encumbrance or the person entitled to the maintenance or alimony, as the case may be.

(7) Where a person entitled to the purchase price or the value of the encumbrance maintenance or alimony dies before it is paid to him, it shall be paid to his legal representatives:

Provided that if such person has, in accordance with the rules made in this behalf, nominated any member of his family to receive the amount, the same shall be paid to such nominee.

Explanation. — For the purposes of the preceding proviso, "member of family" means wife or husband, son or daughter.

(8) Where the person entitled to receive the purchase price or the value of encumbrance is a private trust or endowment or a minor or a person suffering from some legal disability or a limited owner, the purchase price or the value of encumbrance may, notwithstanding anything contained in any law, but subject to any general directions that the Government may give be deposited for and on behalf of the person with such authority or bank as may be prescribed.

(9) Where before any court or authority any suit or proceeding is pending which directly or indirectly affects or is likely to affect the right of any person to receive the whole or part of the purchase price on the amount of encumbrances or maintenance or alimony payable under this Act, the court or authority may require the Land Board to place at its disposal the amount so payable and thereupon the same shall be disposed of in accordance with the orders of the court or authority.

64. Payment of purchase price to the landowner or intermediary to be full discharge. — The payment of purchase price or the value of encumbrance, maintenance or alimony to the landowner or intermediary or other person entitled thereto in the manner specified in Section 63 shall be a full discharge of the liability for payment of purchase price to the landowner and the intermediaries, and no further claims for payment of purchase price shall lie.

65. Special provisions relating to religious, charitable or educational institutions of a public nature. — (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sections 53 to 64, where in respect of a holding the landowner or the intermediary is a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature, such institution may, by application to the Land Board, choose whether the right, title and interest of the institution in respect of the holding should be vested in the Government in consideration of the payment of an annuity in perpetuity by the Government or whether it should be paid such annuity by the Government instead of purchase price in case the holding is purchased by the cultivating tenant under the provisions of this Act:

Provided that no such application shall be entertained by the Land Board on or after the date notified by the Government under Section 72.

Explanation. — in this Sub-section, the expression institution of a public nature includes a public trust and a wakf.

(2) If any question arises as to whether an institution is a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature, the question shall be decided by the Land Board after such enquiry as it deems fit, and its decision thereon shall be final.
(3) The annuity payable to an institution in respect of a holding shall be:—

(a) Where such institution is the landowner, an amount equal to the rent to which it would be entitled if fair rent were determined in respect of the holding, after deducting 2½ per cent thereof by way of collection charges:

(b) Where such institution is the intermediary, an amount equal to the difference between the rent due to such institution from its tenant and the rent for which such institution is liable to its landlord if fair rent were determined in respect of the holding, after deducting 2½ per cent of such difference by way of collection charges.

Explanation I.— For the purposes of this Sub-section, “fair rent” means, the fair rent that would be determined under the provisions of this Act as amended by the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969.

Explanation II.— Where the rent payable to an institution is in kind, the annuity payable shall be commuted into money at the average of the prices of the commodity for six years immediately preceding the year in which the annuity is determined.

66. Procedure for vesting of rights of religious, charitable or educational institutions in Government and for determination of annuity.— (1) An application under Sub-section (1) of Section 65 shall specify all the holdings in respect of which the institution desires to be paid annuity.

(2) The application shall be in such form as may be prescribed.

(3) On receipt of such application, the Land Board shall direct any Land Tribunal, or the Land Tribunals within whose jurisdiction the holdings specified in the application are situate, to determine the annuity payable to the institution.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (3), the Land Board shall have power to reject an application referred to in Sub-section (1) at any time before the date of the notification under Sub-section (9), if it is found that the institution is not a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature or on any other ground to be recorded in writing:

Provided that, before rejecting the application, the institution shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(5) On receipt of a direction under Sub-section (3), the Land Tribunal shall, subject to such rules as may be made by the Government in this behalf, by order in the prescribed form determine:

(a) the fair rent in respect of the holding under the provisions of this Act as amended by the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969;

(b) the annuity payable to the institution in respect of the holding;

(c) where the right, title and interest of the institution in respect of the holding form security for any encumbrance the amount of the encumbrance and, where there are more encumbrances than one, the order of priority of each of such encumbrances; and

(d) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(6) The annuity determined under Sub-section (5) shall be paid:

(a) in the case of a holding included in a notification under Sub-section (9), from the date specified in that notification;

(b) in the case of a holding, the right, title and interest of the landowner and intermediaries in respect of which have been purchased by the cultivating tenant, from the date on which the right, title and interest of the institution in respect of its other holdings have vested in the Government under Sub-section (9) of Section 72, whichever is earlier;

(c) in the case of any other holding, from the date notified under Section 72.
(7) The fair rent in respect of a holding determined under Sub-section (5) shall, subject to the provisions of Section 5102 and 103, be the fair rent for the purposes of Section 72A and 72D.

(8) As soon as may be after the determination of the annuity under Sub-section (5), the Land Tribunal shall forward a statement in the prescribed form together with a copy of the order under that Sub-section, to the Land Board, and the Land Board shall have power to return such statements to the Land Tribunal for the purpose of correcting patent mistakes or errors apparent on the face of the record.

(9) As soon as may be after the determination of the annuity in respect of all holdings specified in the application under Sub-section (1) of Section 65 (other than holdings in respect of which certificates of purchase have been issued), the Government shall issue a notification in the Gazette declaring that the right, title and interest of the institution in respect of such holdings shall vest in the Government with effect from a date to be specified in the notification, and all such right, title and interest shall accordingly vest in the Government free from all encumbrances.

67. Payment of annuity.— The Government shall pay the annuity payable to the institution every year in perpetuity on such date or dates in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that no annuity in respect of a holding shall be paid if the purchase price in respect of that holding has been paid, or deposited in pursuance of Sub-section (8) of Section 63:

Provided further that where the right, title and interest of the institution are subject to any encumbrance on the date on which such right, title and interest have vested in the Government:

(i) the value of the encumbrance shall be paid to the holder of the encumbrance; and

(ii) five per cent of the value of the encumbrance shall be deducted from the annuity and the balance, if any, alone shall be paid to the institution;

Provided also that where the value of the encumbrance is more than sixteen times the annuity:

(i) if there is only one encumbrance, sixteen times the annuity shall be paid to the holder of the encumbrance; and

(ii) if there are more than one encumbrance, sixteen times the annuity shall be paid to the holders of the encumbrances in their order of priority, and in either case, no amount by way of annuity shall be payable to the institution.

68. Vesting of the rights of religious, charitable, or educational institutions in the Government not to operate as bar to the purchase of landlord's rights by cultivating tenants.— The filing of an application by a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature under Sub-section (1) of Section 65 or the vesting of the right title and interest of the institution in the Government under Sub-section (9) of Section 66 shall not affect the right of the cultivating tenant to purchase such right, title and interest in accordance with the provisions of Section 53 to 64.

69. Government entitled to purchase price in certain cases.— Where the right, title and interest of a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature in respect of a holding are purchased by the cultivating tenant and the institution has, under Sub-section (1) of Section 65, expressed its choice for annuity instead of purchase price in respect of that holding, the Government shall, notwithstanding any order of any court or Land Tribunal, be entitled, subject to the provisions of Section 70, to the purchase price payable to the institution.

70. Institution entitled to rent for certain period.— Where the right, title and interest of a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature in respect of a holding are purchased by the cultivating tenant and the institution is entitled to annuity in respect of that holding, the institution shall also be entitled from and out of the purchase price to an amount equal to the rent to which it would have been entitled for the period commencing on the date of application for purchase by the cultivating tenant and ending with the date on which the institution is entitled to annuity, if fair rent had been determined for the holding under this Act as amended by the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, after deducting any amount received by the institution under Sub-section (2) of Section 61.

71. Tenant holding under institution to continue as tenant under the Government.—(1) Where a cultivating tenant does not apply for the purchase of the right, title and interest in respect of his holding vested in the Government under Sub-section (9) of Section 66, the tenant holding directly under the religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature shall continue as tenant under the Government.

(2) The rent payable by such tenant to the Government shall, on default, be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue under the Revenue recovery Act for the time being in force.

72. Vesting of landlord's rights in Government.—(1) On a date to be notified by the Government in this behalf in the *Gazette, all right, title and interest of the landowners and intermediaries in respect of holdings held by cultivating tenants (including holders of kudiyirippus and holders of karaimas) entitled to fixity of tenure under Section 13 and in respect of which certificates of purchase under Sub-section (2) of Section 59 have not been issued, shall, subject to the provisions of this Section, vest in the government free from all encumbrances created by the landowners and intermediaries and subsisting thereon the said date:

Provided that nothing contained in this Sub-section shall apply to a holding or part of a holding in respect of which an application for resumption under the provisions of this Act is pending on such date before any court or tribunal or in appeal or revision.

(2) Where in the case of a holding or part of a holding mentioned in the proviso to Sub-section (1), the order rejecting the application for resumption, either in part or in full, has become final, the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, of the holding or part of the holding, as the case may be, in respect of which resumption has not been allowed shall, with effect from the date on which the application for resumption has been finally rejected, vest in the Government free from all encumbrances created by the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, and subsisting thereon on the said date.

(3) Where any land or portion of a land is restored to the possession of any person under the provisions of this Act after the date notified under Sub-section (1), the right, title and interest of the landowner and intermediaries, if any, in respect of such land or portion of land shall, from the date of such restoration, vest in the Government free from all encumbrances created by the landowner and intermediaries and subsisting thereon on the said date.

(4) Where in the case of a holding or part of a holding, the landowner or an intermediary is a minor or a person of unsound mind a member of the Armed Forces or a seaman, or a legal representative of any such member or seaman, or a small holder, the right, title and interest of the landowner and intermediaries, if any, in respect of such holding or part of a holding shall vest in the Government:-

(a) on the expiry of six months from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, or on the date notified under Sub-section (1), whichever is later, in cases where no application for resumption of the holding or part of the holding has been preferred;

(b) in any case where application for resumption has been preferred, on the date on which the order rejecting such application, either in part or in full, has become final or on the date notified under Sub-section (1), whichever is later.

(5) Where an intermediary has resumed any land under the provisions of this Act, the right, title and interest of the landowner and the other intermediaries, in any, in respect of the said land shall vest in the Government free from all encumbrances created by the landowner and the other intermediaries with effect from the date of resumption or the date notified under Sub-section (1), whichever is later.

COMMENTS

The vesting does not take place on the notified date regarding holdings for which application for resumption is pending.

72A. Compensation to landlords for vesting of their rights in Government.— (1) Very landowner and intermediary whose right, title and interest in respect of any holding have vested in the Government under Section 72 shall be entitled to compensation as provided in Sub-sections (2), (3) and (4).

(2) The compensation payable to the landowner and intermediaries under Sub-section (1) shall be the aggregate of:-

(a) sixteen times the fair rent of the holding or part thereof, the right, title and interest in respect of which have vested in the Government;

(b) the value of structures, wells and embankments of a permanent nature belonging to the landowner and the intermediaries, if any; and

(c) one-half of the value of timber trees belonging to the landowner and the intermediaries, if any;

Provided that where the aggregate of the value of structures, wells and embankments and one-half of the value of the timber trees referred to in clauses (b) and (c) exceeds sixteen times the fair rent in respect of the holding or part thereof, as the case may be, such aggregate value shall, for the purpose of calculating the compensation under this Sub-section, be limited to sixteen times such fair rent.

Explanation I.— For the purposes of this Section and Section 72
D, "fair rent" means the fair rent under this Act as amended by the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969.

Explanation II.— For the purposes of this Section, where the rent is payable in kind, the money value of the rent shall be commuted at the average of the prices of the commodity for the six years imme-
"ately preceding the year in which the right, title and interest of the land owner and the intermediaries have vested in the Government, and in calculating the average of the prices, the prices, if any, public-ished under Section 43 may also be taken into account.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (2), where the total compensation due to a landlord in respect of holdings held by cultivating tenants, after deducting the value of encumbrances and claims for maintenance or alimony, is more than twenty thousand rupees, the compensation payable to such landlord shall be limited to the amount specified in the Table below:

(4) Where the landowner or intermediary of a holding or part of a holding is entitled to receive fifty per cent of the compensation in respect of that holding or part in a lump under Section 72H, the com-ensation payable to such landowner or intermediary, as the case may be, in respect of that holding or part shall, subject to the provisions of Sub-section (3), be 75 per cent of the amount calculated under Sub-section (2).

72B. Cultivating tenants right to assignment.—(1) The cultivating tenant of any holding or part of a holding, the right, title and interest in respect of which have vested in the Government under Section 72, shall be entitled to assignment of such right, title and interest:

Provided that —

(a) no cultivating tenant shall be entitled to assignment of the right, title and interest in respect of any holding or part of a holding under this Section if he, or if he is a member of a family, such family, owns an extent of land not less than the ceiling area.

(b) where the cultivating tenant or, if he is a member of a family, such family, does not own any land or owns an extent of land which is less than the ceiling area, he shall be entitled to the assignment of the right, title and interest in respect of only such extent of land as will, together with the land, if any, owned by him or his family, as the case may be, be equal to the ceiling area.

Explanation.—In calculating the extent of land owned by the cultivating tenant or, where he is a member of a family, by such family, for the purposes of clauses (a) and (b) of the foregoing proviso, the portion of the land owned by such cultivating tenant or by the family, which is liable to be assigned to the cultivating tenants holding under him or such family, shall not be taken into account.

(2) The provisions of Section 82 shall, so far as may be, apply to the calculation of the ceiling area for the purposes of the proviso to Sub-section (1);

Provided that if no date has been notified under Section 83, the date notified under Section 72 shall be deemed to be the date notified under Section 83.

(3) Any cultivating tenant entitled to assignment of the right, title and interest in respect of a holding or part of a holding under Subsection (1) may apply to the Land Tribunal within whose jurisdiction such holding or part is situate within two years from the date of vesting of such right, title and interest in the Government under Section 72, or such further time as may be allowed by the Government in this behalf, for such assignment to him.

(4) An application under Sub-section (3) shall contain the following particulars, namely:

(a) the village, survey number and extent of the holding or part to which the assignment relates.

(b) the name and address of the landowner and intermediaries and also of every other person interested in the land and the nature of their interest so far as they are known to him;

(c) the particulars regarding the other lands owned or held by him or if he is a member of a family; by such family; and

(d) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(5) Where a cultivating tenant is entitled to the assignment of the right, title and interest in respect of only a portion of the holding held by him, he may indicate in the application under Sub-section (3) his choice of the portion to which the assignment shall relate.

1|72BB. Right of landlord to apply for assignment and compensation.—(1) Any landowner or intermediary whose right, title and interest in respect of any holding have vested in the Government may apply to the Land Tribunal for the assignment of such right, title and interest to the cultivating tenant and for the payment of the compensation due to him under Section 72A.

(2) An application under Sub-section (1) shall contain the following particulars, namely:

(a) the village, survey number and extent of the holding to which the assignment relates:

\[1. \text{Inserted by Act 17 of 1972}\]
(b) the names and address of the cultivating tenant, landlord and intermediaries and also of every other person interested in the land and the nature of their interest, so far as they are known to the applicant;

(c) the particulars regarding the other lands held by the cultivating tenant so far as may be known to the applicant;

(d) the fair rent, if any, fixed, and the contract rent, if any, of the holding;

(e) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

72C. Assignment where application is not made by cultivating tenant.— Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (3) of Section 72B [or Section 72B], the Land Tribunal may, subject to such rules as may be made by the Government in this behalf, at any time after the vesting of the right, title and interest of the landowners and intermediaries in the Government under Section 72, assign such right, title and interest to the cultivating tenants entitled thereto, and the cultivating tenants shall be bound to accept such assignment.

72D. Purchase price.— (1) The cultivating tenant shall be liable to pay purchase price to the Government on the assignment to him of the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any.

(1A) Where the total extent of land held as tenant by a cultivating tenant is one hectare or below, he shall not be liable to pay purchase price under Sub-section (1).

Explanation.— For the removal of doubt it is hereby clarified that the benefit conferred to a cultivating tenant under this Sub-section shall not affect the eligibility of the landowner or intermediary, if any, to receive compensation to which he is entitled under the Act.

(2) The purchase price referred to in Sub-section (1) shall be the aggregate of:

(a) sixteen times the fair rent of the holding or part thereof, the right, title and interest in respect of which have been assigned to the cultivating tenant;

(b) the value of structures, well and embankments of a permanent nature which belonged to the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, at the time of vesting in the Government;

(c) one-half of the value of timber trees which belonged to the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, at the time of vesting in the Government;

Provided that where the aggregate of the value of structures, wells and embankments and one-half of the value of timber trees referred to in clauses (b) and (c) exceeds sixteen times the fair rent in respect of the holding or part thereof, as the case may be, such aggregate value shall, for the purpose of calculating the purchase price under this Sub-section, be limited to sixteen times such fair rent.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this Section, where the rent is payable in kind, the money value of the rent shall be commuted at the average of the prices of the commodity for the six years immediately preceding the year in which the right, title and interest of the landowner and intermediaries have vested in the Government, and in calculating the average of the prices, the prices, if any, published under Section 43 may also be taken into account.

72E. Rent of holdings vested in Government but not assigned to cultivating tenants.— Where in respect of any holding or part thereof, the right, title and interest of the landowner and intermediaries have vested in the Government under Section 72 and the cultivating tenant is not entitled to the assignment of such right, title and interest by virtue of Sub-section (1) of Section 72B, the cultivating tenant shall be liable to pay to the Government the rent payable under this Act from the date of vesting under Section 72.
(2) The Land Tribunal shall also issue a notice individually to the landowner, each of the intermediaries and the cultivating tenant and also, as far as practicable, to the other persons referred to in clause (b) of Sub-section (1) calling upon them to prefer claims and objections if any within such time as may be specified in the notice and to appear before it on the date specified in the notice with all relevant records to prove their respective claims or in support of their objections.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (2), the publication of a notice \[in the manner referred to in Sub-section (1)] shall be deemed to be sufficient notice to the landowner, the intermediaries, if any, the cultivating tenant and all other persons interested in the land.

[(3A) The Land Tribunal shall furnish a copy of the public notice under Sub-section (1), along with a statement containing the names and addresses of the persons to whom individual notices have been issued under Sub-section (2), and such other particulars as may be prescribed, to the village committee of the village in which the holding is situate, or, where the holding is situate in more than one village, the village committee of each such village and require the village committee or village committees, as the case may be, to advise the Tribunal on the matters mentioned in Sub-section (3B) before such date as may be specified in the requisition.

(3B) On receipt of the copy of the public notice and the statement from the Land Tribunal under Sub-section (3A), the village committee, or each of the village committees shall, after such inquiry as may be prescribed, advise the Land Tribunal in respect of the following matters, namely:—

(a) The names and address of the landowner, the intermediaries, if any, and the cultivating tenant;

(b) the names and address of all other persons interested in the land;]
(c) such particulars as are necessary for the identification of the land comprised in the holding, as may be prescribed;

(d) the value of encumbrances subsisting or claims for maintenance or alimony charged on the right, title and interest of the landowner and intermediaries, if any;

(e) the amount due to the holders of encumbrances or the persona entitled to maintenance or alimony and the order of priority in which the amount is payable; and

(f) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(4) Any person interested in the land, to whom no notice under Sub-section (2) has been issued, may apply to the Land Tribunal stating the nature of his claim or objection and the relief he requires.

3[(5) The Land Tribunal shall, after considering the claims and objections received in pursuance of the notice issued under Sub-section (1) or Sub-section (2) and the advice received from the village committee or village committees before the date specified therefore and hearing any person appearing in pursuance of the notice issued under Sub-section (1) or subSection (2) and after making due enquiries, pass an order specifying—]

(a) the extent, survey number and such other particulars as may be prescribed, of the land, the right, title and interest in respect of which have vested in the Government under Section 72;

(b) the compensation due to the landowner and intermediaries, if any;

(c) the amount due to the landowner and each of the intermediaries, if any, on the apportionment of the compensation;

(d) the value of encumbrances subsisting or claims for maintenance or alimony charged on the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any;

(e) the amount due to the holders of encumbrances or the persons entitled to maintenance or alimony, and the order of priority in which the amount is payable;

(f) the amount payable to the landowner and each of the intermediaries after deducting the value of encumbrances of claims for maintenance or alimony;

(g) the purchase price payable by the cultivating tenant;

(h) the rent payable by the cultivating tenant to the Government in the cases falling under Section 72E; 1[x x x]

2[(hh) where the landowner or intermediary is a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature and is entitled to annuity instead of compensation, the amount of such annuity; and]

(i) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(6) Where the right, title and interest of the landowner or the intermediaries in respect of a holding or part of a holding vested in the Government form part of the security for any encumbrance or charge for maintenance or alimony, the Land Tribunal shall, for the purpose of determining the value of the encumbrance or the claim for the maintenance or alimony relating to that holding or part, as the case may be, apportion the entire encumbrance or the charge for the maintenance or alimony between such holding or part and the remaining lands which form the security for the encumbrance or the charge for the maintenance or alimony, in proportion to the values of the two portions.

(7) If the landowner or any intermediary is liable to pay any amount to the cultivating tenant under this Act, the Land Tribunal shall, in passing orders under this Section, set off such amount against the compensation payable to the landowner or that intermediary.

(8) Where the cultivating tenant is entitled to the assignment of the right, title and interest in respect only of a portion of the land held by him (whether included in one holding or not), the Land Tribunal shall, as far as possible, assign to the cultivating tenant the right, title and interest in respect of the portion of his choice.

72G. Apportionment of compensation by the Land Tribunal.—(1) The compensation payable to the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, for the vesting of their right, title and interest in respect of a holding in the Government under Section 72 shall be apportioned among the landowner and the intermediaries, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of Sub-sections (2) and (3).

(2) The amount of sixteen times the fair rent of the holding or part, the right, title and interest in respect of which have vested in the Government, shall be apportioned among the landowner, and the intermediary or intermediaries in proportion to the profits derived by them from the holding or part.

Explanation.—"Profits derived from the holdings" shall, for the purpose of this Sub-section, mean in the case of the landowner the rent to which he is entitled and in the case of an intermediary, the difference between the rent due to him from his tenant and the rent for which the intermediary is liable to his landlord; and where there is no evidence as to the rent for which the intermediary is liable to his landlord, it shall be presumed that such rent is one-half of the rent payable to the intermediary by his tenant.

(3) The value of the structures, wells and embankments of a permanent nature and one half of the value of timber trees shall be payable to the landowner or the intermediary to whom such structures, wells, embankments and timber trees belongs:

Provided that where the aggregate of the value of structures, wells and embankments and one-half of the value of timber trees has been limited to sixteen times the fair rent under the proviso to Sub-section (2) of Section 72A, the amount payable under this Sub-section to the landowner and the intermediary or intermediaries shall be sixteen times such fair rent apportioned among the landowner and the intermediary or intermediaries in proportion to the value of the structures, wells, embankments and timber trees belonging to each of them.

(4) Where the right, title and interest of the landowner or an intermediary in respect of the holding were subject to any encumbrance, or charge for maintenance or alimony, the value of such encumbrance, maintenance or alimony shall be deducted from the compensation payable to the landowner or the intermediary, as the case may be, and the landowner, or the intermediary shall be entitled only to the balance amount; and if the total amount of such encumbrance, maintenance or alimony is equal to or more than the amount of the compensation payable to the landowner or the intermediary, the whole amount shall be reserved for payment to the holder of the encumbrance or the person entitled to the maintenance or alimony and the landowner or the intermediary, as the case may be, shall not be entitled to any amount by way of compensation.

72II. Part payment of compensation, discharge of encumbrance, etc., by Land Tribunal.—(1) The Land Tribunal shall pay to the landowner and each of the intermediaries of a holding fifty per cent of the compensation payable to them in respect of that holding in accordance with the provisions of this Section.

[(2) The amount of compensation payable under Sub-section (1) in respect of a holding shall be paid in cash in lump within a period of one year of the date on which the order of the Land Tribunal under Sub-section (5) of Section 72A has become final.]

[x x x]

[(6) Where the amount of compensation is not paid on or before the expiry of the period or one year specified in Sub-section (2), such amount shall bear interest at the rate of four per cent per annum from the date of expiry of the said period of one year.]

(7) Where any amount has been deducted or reserved for payment to the holders of the encumbrances or the persons entitled to the maintenance or alimony, the same shall be paid by the Land Tribunal in their order of priority to the persons entitled thereto.

(8) Where a person entitled to compensation or the value of the encumbrance, maintenance or alimony dies before it is paid to him, it shall be paid to his legal representatives.

Provided that if such person has, in accordance with the rules made in this behalf, nominated any member of his family to receive the amount, the same shall be paid to such nominee Explanation:- For the purposes of the preceding proviso, member of family means wife or husband, son or daughter.

(9) Where the person entitled to receive the compensation or the value of encumbrance is a private trust or endowment or minor or person suffering from some legal disability or a limited owner, the compensation or the value of encumbrance may, notwithstanding anything contained in any law, but subject to any general directions that the Government may give, be deposited for and on behalf of such person with such authority or bank as may be prescribed.

(10) Where before any court or authority, any suit or proceeding is pending, which directly or indirectly affects or is likely to affect the right of any person to receive the whole or part of the compensation or the amount of encumbrance or maintenance or alimony payable under this Act, the court or authority may require the Land Tribunal to place at its disposal the amount so payable, and thereupon the same shall be disposed of in accordance with the orders of the court or authority.

72 l. Determination and payment of balance compensation.—(1) Every landowner or intermediary shall, as soon as may be after the determination of the compensation in respect of all holdings held by cultivating tenants under him and in respect of which the right, title and interest of the landowner and intermediaries have vested in the Government, apply to the Land Board for the determination and payment of the compensation due to him after deducting the amount referred to in Sub-section (1) of Section 72H.

(2) An application under Sub-section (1) shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) On receipt of an application under Sub-section (1), the Land Board shall make such enquiries as may be prescribed and after giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard determine the amount of compensation due to the applicant after deducting the amount referred to in Sub-section (1) of Section 72H:

Provided that where the amount of compensation mentioned in the application as due to the applicant is not more than the amount of compensation determined by the Land Board it shall not be necessary to give the applicant an opportunity of being heard.

(4) Subject to such rules as may be made by the Government in this behalf, the amount of compensation determined under Sub-section (3) shall be paid either in cash or in negotiable bonds redeemable after sixteen years and carrying interest at the rate of four and half percent per annum with effect from the date of such determination, or partly in cash and partly in such bonds.

(5) Where the compensation is proposed to be paid in cash, it shall be payable in eight equal annual instalment with interest at the rate of four per cent per annum on the instalment in default, the first instalment being payable before the date of expiry of one year from the date of determination of the amount of compensation under Sub-section (3).

(5A) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (4) or Sub-section (5):

(a) Where the cultivating tenant has opted to pay the purchase price payable by him under Section 72l in a lump; or

(b) where the landowner or the intermediary is a small holder and the amount of compensation in respect of all

1. Added by KLR (Amendment) Act, 1979
2. Substituted by KLR (Amendment) Act, 1979
holdings held by cultivating tenants under him does not exceed five thousand rupees, the amount of compensation determined under Sub-section (3) shall be paid in cash in lump within one year from the date of such determination and if not so paid shall bear interest at the rate of four per cent per annum from the date of expiry of that period.

(6) The provisions of Sub-sections (8), (9) and (10) of Section 72H shall, so far as may be, apply to the payment of the amount of compensation determined under Sub-section (3).

72J. Payment of compensation to landowner and intermediary to be full discharge.— The payment of compensation under Section 72H and 721 shall be a full discharge of the liability of the Government for payment of such compensation, and no further claims for payment of compensation shall lie against the Government;

Provided that nothing contained in this Section shall affect the liability of any person who may receive the whole or any part of the compensation or the value of encumbrances, maintenance or alimony to pay the same to the persons lawfully entitled thereto.

72K. Issue of certificate of purchase.— (1) As soon as may be after the determination of the purchase price under Section 72F and the passing of an order under Sub-section (3) of Section 72MM, the Land Tribunal shall issue a certificate of purchase to the cultivating tenant, and thereupon the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, in respect of the holding or part thereof to which the certificate relates, shall vest in the cultivating tenant free from all encumbrances created by the landowner or the intermediaries, if any.

Explanation.— For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that on the issue of the certificate of purchase, the landowner or any intermediary shall have no right in the land comprised in the holding, and all his rights including rights, if any, in respect of trees reserved for his enjoyment shall stand extinguished.

1. Inserted by Act 17 of 1972

(2) The certificate of purchase issued under Sub-section (1) shall be conclusive proof of the assignment to the tenant of the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, over the holding or portion thereof to which the assignment relates.

(3) The purchase price payable by the cultivating tenant shall be a first charge on the land comprised in the holding or part thereof to which the assignment relates and shall be recoverable together with interest as provided in Sub-section (3) of Section 72M, under the provisions of the Revenue Recovery Act for the time being in force.

COMMENTS

The interdict that the court shall not allow evidence to be adduced for the purpose of disproving the conclusiveness, will not prevent a party who alleges fraud or collusion from establishing that the document is vitiated by such factors. Except regarding the said limited sphere the conclusiveness of the document would remain beyond the reach of controvertibility.

[Ahmmad Kutty v. Mariakutty Umma 2000 (1) KLT 829]

Unless that certificate is set aside by a competent authority or is a court of law, the statutory enforcement in terms of Sec. 72K (2) has to be honoured and a person claiming on the basis of such purchase certificate has to be taken as in possession of the properties.

[Lakshmi v. Viswanathan 1999 (2) KLT 621]

72L. Purchase price payable in instalments or in lump.— The purchase price determined under Section 72F shall be payable in sixteen equal annual instalments:

Provided that it shall be open to the cultivating tenant to pay the purchase price in a lump, in which case the amount payable shall be only seventy five per cent of the purchase price:

Provided further that the cultivating tenant shall exercise his option to pay the purchase price in a lump before the date of the order under Sub-section (5) of Section 72F, and such option shall be final.

"(1A) An application from a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature for annuity pending or deemed to be pending on the date notified by the Government under Sub-section (1) of Section 72 shall, on the date of publication of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1971, in the Gazette, abate, and where any such application has been made after the date of such publication, that application shall abate on the date on which it is received by the Land Board.

(1B) For the removal of doubts it is hereby clarified that the annuity payable to a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature whose application abates under Sub-section (1A) shall be determined by the Land Tribunal under Section 72F and that Section 66 will not apply for such determination.)

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sections 65 to 69, a religious, charitable or educational institution of public nature which has not expressed its choice for annuity instead of purchase price before the date notified under Sub-section (1) of Section 72 shall not be entitled to express such choice, and such institution shall be entitled only to the compensation under Section 72A.

72 O. Rent paid by cultivating tenant to be adjusted towards purchase price and compensation in certain cases:-(1) Any amount paid by way of rent by the cultivating tenant in respect of his holding to the landowner or any intermediary or the Government for the period after the date of vesting of the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries in respect of the holding in the Government under Section 72 shall be adjusted towards the purchase price payable by the cultivating tenant, and such amount received by the landowner or any intermediary shall be adjusted towards the compensation payable to him under Section 72H.

(2) Where, consequent on the determination of the fair rent in respect of a holding, the rent payable by the cultivating tenant to the landowner or any intermediary has been reduced, the amount paid by the cultivating tenant in excess of the rent so determined to the landlord or the intermediary for the period commencing on the beginning of the agricultural year in which the cultivating tenant filed the application for such determination and ending with the date of such determination shall be adjusted towards the purchase price payable by the cultivating tenant, and such amount received by the landlord or any intermediary shall be adjusted towards the compensation payable to him under Section 72A.

72P. Applications under Section 54 and proceedings relating thereto to abate on the date notified under Section 72.— (1) All applications under Section 54 (other than those which have been rejected and such rejection has become final) and all proceedings in connection therewith, whether pending before the appellate authority or the High Court or the Land Board, shall, if the certificates of purchase have not been issued under Sub-section (2) of Section 59, abate with effect from the date notified under Sub-section (1) of Section 72, and no party shall be liable to pay the cost of any other party in any such proceedings.

(2) Where a certificate of purchase is issued under Section 72K in respect of any holding or part thereof to which an application referred to in Sub-section (1) relates:

(a) the right, title and interest of the landlord and intermediaries in respect of such holding or part shall be deemed to have vested in the cultivating tenant from the date of such application;

(b) any amount paid or deposited by the cultivating tenant by way of rent after the date of such application, shall be adjusted towards the purchase price payable by him under Section 72D.

(c) any such amount received or withdrawn by the landlord or any intermediary shall be adjusted towards the compensation payable to him under Section 72H and if the amount of compensation payable under that Section is not sufficient, the balance shall be adjusted towards the compensation payable to him under Section 721; and

(d) any purchase price deposited by the cultivating tenant shall be adjusted towards the purchase price payable by him under Section 72D.

72Q. Vesting of landlord’s right not to affect right to recover arrears of rent.— The vesting of the right, title and interest of a landlord or an intermediary in respect of any holding or part of a holding in the cultivating tenant under Sub-section (2) of Section 59 or in the Government under Sub-section (9) of Section 66 or Section 72 shall not affect the right of the landlord or the intermediary to recover the arrears of rent due to him before the date of such vesting, and any such arrears may be recovered as if such vesting had not taken place, subject to the provisions of Section 73.

72R. Special provisions regarding jennikaram under the Kanam Tenancy Act, 1955.— (1) Where the right, title and interest of a kanam tenant as defined in the Kanam Tenancy Act, 1955, in respect to any holding or part of a holding have vested in a cultivating tenant, then, notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act, such cultivating tenant shall be liable to pay the jennikaram in respect of such holding or part—

1. Inserted by KLR (Amendment) Act, 1981
(a) where such vesting is under Sub-section (2) of Section 59 or Sub-section (2) of Section 72P, from the date on which such right, title and interest are deemed to have vested in the cultivating tenant; and

(b) in other cases, from the date on which such right, title and interest have vested in the Government.

[until the commencement of the Kanam Tenancy Abolition Act, 1976] and the kanam tenant shall have no liability to pay such jenmikaram.

(2) Where the Government have paid any jenmikaram for or during the period commencing on the date on which the right, title and interest of the kanam tenant have vested in the Government under Section 72 and ending with the date on which the certificate of purchase has been issued to the cultivating tenant, which the cultivating tenant is liable to pay under Sub-section (1), such amount of jenmikaram may be recovered from the cultivating tenant as arrears of public revenue due on land.

725. Liability for assessment after the date of vesting under Section 72.—[(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Kerala Land Tax Act, 1961, or in any other law for the time being in force, or in any contract, where the right, title and interest of the landlord and the intermediaries, if any, in respect of a holding have vested in the Government under Section 72, the cultivating tenant of that holding shall be liable to pay the basic tax payable in respect of that holding under the said Act and other taxes and cesses due in respect of that holding.]

[(2) In the case of a holding or part of a holding in respect of which an application for resumption under the provisions of this Act is rejected, the cultivating tenant shall be liable to pay the basic tax and other taxes and cesses in respect of such holding or part of the holding, as the case may be, with effect on and from the date notified under Sub-section (1) of Section 72.]
Provided that where the tenant is in possession of more than fifteen acres of land in the aggregate, whether as owner, mortgagee, lessee or otherwise, and the landlord is a small holder, the tenant shall be liable to pay the actual amount in arrears.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this Section, the rent for an year shall be deemed to be an amount equal to the rent payable for the year immediately preceding the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969 and which has accrued due before such commencement.

(2) Where any suit, appeal, revision or application which involves a claim by a landlord for arrears of rent accrued due prior to the 1st day of May, 1968, is pending before any court or Land Tribunal, such Court or Land Tribunal may, after such enquiry as it deems fit, pass an order specifying—

(a) the amount to which the landlord is entitled under Sub-section (1);

(b) the costs, if any, awarded to the landlord in connection with the conduct of the proceedings after the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969;

(c) the costs, if any, awarded to the tenant in connection with the conduct of the proceedings after such commencement; and

(d) where such costs are awarded to the tenant, the amount due to the landlord after deducting such costs.

(3) Where any decree or order has been passed in favour of a landlord before the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, by any Court or Land Tribunal for the recovery of arrears of rent accrued due prior to the 1st day of May, 1968, such decree or order shall be enforceable only to the extent of the amount due to such landlord under Sub-section (1); and to determine such amount, any of the parties to the decree or order may apply to the Court or the Land Tribunal, as the case may be, which passed the decree or order, to amend such decree or order in accordance with the provisions of Sub-section (1).

(4) On receipt of an application under Sub-section (3), the Court or the Land Tribunal, as the case may be, may, after such enquiry as it deems fit, reopen the decree or order and pass an order containing the particulars specified in Sub-section (2).

(5) Any landlord who has not instituted a suit or applied under Section 26 for recovery of arrears of rent accrued due prior to the 1st day of May, 1968, before the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, may apply to the Land Tribunal under that Section for recovery of the amount due to him under Sub-section (1) of this Section.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 26, on receipt of an application referred to in Sub-section (5), the Land Tribunal may, after such enquiry as it deems fit, pass an order containing the particulars specified in Sub-section (2).

(7) The tenant shall deposit the amount specified in an order under Sub-section (2) or Sub-section (4) or Sub-section (6) as due from him in the Court or Land Tribunal which passed the order within a period of six months from the date of the order.

(8) If the tenant fails to deposit any amount as required by Sub-section (7), such amount shall, on a written requisition from the Court or the Land Tribunal, as the case may be, to the District Collector, be recovered under the provisions of the Kerala Revenue Recovery Act, 1968, together with interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the date of the order under Sub-section (2) or Sub-section (4) or Sub-section (6), as the case may be.

(9) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section, a tenant who has paid the amount as provided in Section 34 of the Kerala Agrarian Relations Act, 1960, or in Section 5 of the Kerala Ryotwari Tenants and Kudikidappukars Protection Act, 1962, for the discharge of arrears of rent outstanding on the 11th day of April, 1957, or the arrears of rent accrued due after that date and outstanding on the 15th day of February, 1961, on or before the date specified in those Acts for the payment of the amount, shall not be liable to pay any amount towards arrears of rent for that period.

(10) The assignment by a landlord of his right to receive arrears of rent to any other person shall not affect the benefits conferred on a tenant under this Section

74. Prohibition of future tenancies.— (1) After the commencement of this Act, no tenancy shall be created in respect of any land.

1[x x x]

(2) Any tenancy created in contravention of the provisions of Sub-section (1) shall be invalid.

RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF KUDIKIDAPPUKARS

75. Kudikidappukaran to have fixity.— (1) No Kudikidappukaran shall be liable to be evicted from his kudikidappu except on the following grounds, namely:

(i) that he has alienated his right of kudikidappu to a person other than—

(a) a member of his family; or

(b) a person who has no other homestead or any land in possession, either as owner or as tenant, on which he could erect a homestead and whose annual income does not exceed two thousand rupees;

(ii) that he has rented or leased out his entire kudikidappu to another person for a period of not less than two years;

(iii) that he has ceased to reside in the kudikidappu continuously for a period of two years; or

(iv) that he has another kudikidappu or has obtained ownership and possession of land which is fit for erecting a homestead within a distance of five kilometers from his kudikidappu:

Provided that the kudikidappukaran shall not be liable to be evicted on the ground mentioned in sub-clause (iv) if the extent of the land over which he has obtained ownership and possession is not more than three cents if it is in a city or major municipality or five cents if it is in any municipality or ten cents if it is in a panchayat area or township;

Provided further that a kudikidappukaran shall be liable to be evicted, if he has obtained ownership and possession of land situate beyond a distance of five kilometers where the extent of such land is not less than twenty five cents.

Explanation 1.— For the purpose of this Sub-section, “member of family” shall mean, in the case of a joint family, any member of such family, and in other cases, wife or husband, as the case may be, and any of their lineal descendants.

Explanation 2.— For the purposes of this Sub-section, a kudikidappukaran shall not be deemed to have ceased to reside in a kudikidappu, notwithstanding the fact that he was not actually residing therein, if any of his near relatives who was residing with him in the kudikidappu continues to reside in the kudikidappu; and in such a case, the near relative who continues to reside in the kudikidappu shall be liable for the rent payable by the kudikidappukaran; and near relative shall mean husband or wife, children, grandchildren, father, mother, brother, sister or children of brother or sister.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (1), the person in possession of the land on which there is a homestead or hut (hereinafter in this Sub-section referred to as the landholder) in the occupation of a kudikidappukaran may, if he bona fide requires the land—

1[(a) for constructing a building for his own residence or for the residence of any member of his family included major sons and daughters; or]

1. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969

(b) for purposes in connection with a town planning scheme approved by the competent authority; or

(c) for any industrial purpose, require the kudikidappukaran, to shift to a new site belonging to him, subject to the following conditions, namely:

(i) the landholder shall pay to the kudikidappukaran the price of the homestead, if any, erected by the kudikidappukaran;

(ii) the new site shall be fit for erecting a homestead and shall be within a distance of one mile from the existing kudikidappu;

(iii) the extent of new site shall be the extent of the existing kudikidappu, subject to a minimum of three cents if within the limits of a city or a major municipality, five cents if within the limits of any other municipality and ten cents if in any panchayat area or township;

(iv) the landholder shall transfer ownership and possessions of the new site to the kudikidappukaran and shall pay to him the reasonable cost of shifting the kudikidappu to the new site.

Where the above conditions are complied with, the kudikidappukaran shall be bound to shift to the new site.

[(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-sections (1) and (2), where the total extent of land held by a person, either as owner or as tenant, is less than one acre and there is a kudikidappu on any land held by him, he may, if he requires the land occupied by such kudikidappu for constructing a building for his own residence, apply to the Government for the acquisition of land to which the kudikidappu may be shifted.]

Provided that, after the expiry of a period of two years from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, an application shall not be made under this Sub-section except with the consent of the kudikidappukaran.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this Sub-section,—

(a) the total extent of land held by a person shall be computed as on the 1st day of July 1969;

(b) in calculating the total extent of land held by a person who is a member of a family, the extent of land held by any member of his family or jointly by some or all of the members of such family shall also be taken into consideration.

[(3A) In an application under Sub-section (3), the applicant shall offer to deposit, whenever called for, eighty seven and a half per cent of the amount of compensation payable for acquisition of land equal to the extent of the existing kudikiduppu subject to a minimum of three cents if within the limits of a city or major municipality or ten cents if in any panchayat area or township.

(3B) An officer authorised by the Government in this behalf may, after collecting the amount referred to in Sub-section (3A) from the applicant, acquire the necessary land under the Kerala Land Acquisition Act, 1961, give possession of the land to the kudikidappukaran and require him to shift to the said land, and thereupon the kudikidappukaran shall be bound to shift to the new site.

(3BB) Where the kudikidappukaran does not shift to the land acquired in pursuance of Sub-section (3B) within a period of one month from the date of service on him of the requisition under that Sub-section, the officer referred to in that Sub-section shall cause him to be evicted from the existing kudikidappu.

(3C) The kudikidappukaran shall be entitled before he shifts as required under Sub-section (3B) to receive from the person in posses-] sion of the land on which his kudikidappu is situate the expenses as determined by the officer referred to in that Sub-section to be reasonably required to shift to the new site.]

[(3D) Where the kudikidappukaran shift as required under Subsection (3B), or under Sub-section (3BB) he shall be entitled to the ownership and possession of the land to which he shifts or is bound to shift, as the case may be, and also to the registry of such land in his name.]

[(3E) Twelve and a half per cent of the of compensation payable for the acquisition] under Sub-section (3B) shall be met from the Kudikidappukar’s Benefit Fund constituted under Section 109.

(4) Where the person in possession of the land in which there is a kudikidappu considers that the kudikidappu is so located as to cause inconvenience to him, he may require the kudikidappukaran to shift to another part of the land which is fit for the location of the kudikidappu:

Provided that the kudikidappukaran shall have the right to opt for the portion to which the kudikidappu may be shifted:

Provided further that the kudikidappukaran shall not be entitled to opt for any portion which is not adjoining the boundaries of the land, except with the consent of the person in possession of the land:

Provided also that if the kudikidappukaran refuses to opt, he shall be bound to shift to the portion to which he is required to shift by the person in possession of the land:

Provided also that the person in possession of the land shall transfer to the kudikidappukaran his rights over the land to which the kudikidappu is to be shifted, which shall be equal to the extent of the existing kudikidappu subject to a minimum of three cents if in any city or major municipality or five cents if in any other municipality or ten cents if in any panchayat area or township and pay the price of the homestead, if any, erected by the kudikidappukaran and the cost of shifting the kudikidappu.

76. Rent payable by kudikidappukaran.— (1) All arrears of rent, if any, payable, by a kudikidappukaran on the date of the commencement of [(the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969) whether the same be payable under any law, custom or contract or under a decree or order of court shall be deemed to be fully discharged if he pays one year’s rent or the actual amount in arrears, whichever is less.

(2) On and after the commencement of this Act, notwithstanding any contract, decree or order of court, a kudikidappukaran shall not be required to pay more than [(twenty four rupees yearly as rent in respect of his kudikidappu if it is situated within the limits of any city or major municipality or six rupees yearly as rent in respect of his kudikidappu if it is situated in any other area;]

Provided that a kudikidappukaran who was not liable to pay any rent in respect of his kudikidappu immediately before the commencement of this Act shall not be liable to pay any rent; nor shall a kudikidappukaran be liable to pay any rent in excess of that which he was paying before the commencement of this Act.

77. Procedure to enforce shifting of kudikidappu in certain cases.—
(1) If the kudikidappukaran does not comply with the requisition made under Sub-section (2) or Sub-section (4) of Section 75 by the person in possession of the land to shift to a new site, such person may apply to the Land Tribunal having jurisdiction to entertain an application under Section 80B in respect of the kudikidappu to be shifted, to enforce compliance with such requisition:

Provided that no application under this Sub-section shall be made without giving the kudikidappukaran one month’s notice by registered post:

1. Substituted by Act 25 of 1971

Explanation.—For the purposes of this Section, enjoyment of any benefit or concession for a continuous period of three years immediately preceding the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be enjoyment of a right accrued to the kudikidappukaran by custom, usage or agreement.

80. Register of kudikidappukars.—(1) The Government shall cause a register of kudikidappukars to be prepared and maintained within the limits of each local authority to be prepared and maintained.

(2) The register shall show—

(a) the description of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate;
(b) the location of the kudikidappu and its extent;
(c) the name of the landowner and of the person in possession of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate;
(d) the name and address of the kudikidappukaran;

[(dd) the rights referred to in Section 79A; and]

(e) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) Subject to such rules as may be made by the Government in this behalf, the local authority shall prepare a register of kudikidappukars within its jurisdiction.

(4) The register shall be maintained by the local authority in such manner as may be prescribed.

(5) Any person aggrieved by the registration of a kudikidappukaran under Sub-section (3) or the refusal to register a person claiming to be a kudikidappukaran may, within ninety days from the date of registration or refusal, as the case may be, appeal—

(a) to the Revenue Divisional Officer having jurisdiction, where the decision appealed against is that of a municipal corporation or a municipal council;

(b) to the Tahsildar having jurisdiction, in other cases.

(6) On receipt of an appeal under Sub-section (5), the Revenue Divisional Officer or the Tahsildar, as the case may be, may call for the record of any proceeding which has been taken by the local authority under this Section and may make such enquiry or cause such enquiry to be made and may pass such orders thereon as he thinks fit:

Provided that no order prejudicial to any person shall be passed without giving him an opportunity of being heard.

(7) For the purposes of this Section, “local authority” shall not include a cantonment board.

1[(80A. Right of kudikidappukaran to purchase his kudikidappu.—(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force, a kudikidappukaran shall, subject to the provisions of this Section, have the right to purchase the kudikidappu occupied by him and lands adjoining thereto.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (1), where the total extent of land held by the person in possession of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate, either as owner or as tenant is less than one acre, the kudikidappukaran shall be entitled to purchase his kudikidappu and lands adjoining thereto only incases where the person in possession of the Government under Sub-section (3) of Section 75 for the acquisition of the land to which the kudikidappu may be shifted, within a period of two years from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969:

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969
3. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969]
Provided that in a case where the person in possession has applied under Sub-section (3) of Section 75, the kudikidappukaran shall be entitled to purchase his kudikidappu and lands adjoining thereto if such application by the person in possession of the land is rejected or if such person fails to pay the expenses for shifting the kudikidappu as required by the Sub-section (3C) of Section 75.

(3) The extent of land which the kudikidappukaran is entitled to purchase under this Section shall be three cents in a city or major municipality or five cents in any other municipality or ten cents in a panchayat area or township:

Provided that where the land available for purchase in the land in which the kudikidappu is situate, or the land in which the kudikidappu is situate, is less than the extent specified in this Sub-section, the kudikidappukaran shall be entitled to purchase only the land available for purchase or, as the case may be, the land in which the kudikidappu is situate.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (3), where in the lands held by a person, either as owner or as tenant, there are more kudikidappukars than one, the maximum extent of land which is liable to be purchased under this Section shall be,—

(a) where such person holds less than one acre of land, three cents in a city or major municipality or five cents in any other municipality or ten cents in a panchayat area or township;

(b) where such person holds one acre or more, but less than two acres, of land, six cents in a city or major municipality or ten cents in any other municipality or twenty cents in a panchayat area or township;

(c) where such person holds two acres or more, but less than three acres, of land, nine cents in a city or major municipality or fifteen cents in any other municipality or thirty cents in a panchayat area or township;

(d) where such person holds three acres or more, but less than four acres, of land, twelve cents in a city or major municipality or twenty cents in any other municipality or forty cents in a panchayat area or township;

(e) where such person holds four acres or more, but less than five acres, of land, fifteen cents in a city or major municipality or twenty-five cents in any other municipality or fifty cents in a panchayat area or township:

Provided that the extent of land which a kudikidappukaran shall be entitled to purchase shall, in no case, exceed the extent specified in Sub-section(3):

Provided further that if in any case falling under clause (b) or clause (c) or clause (d) or clause (e), the extent specified in that clause is not sufficient for the purchase of an extent of three cents of land by each kudikidappukaran, the extent of land which is liable to be purchased under this Section shall be the extent required for purchase of three cents by each kudikidappukaran:

1[Provided also that where any person in possession of any land in which there is a kudikidappu or more than one kudikidappu, has voluntarily transferred such land on or after the 1st day of July, 1969 and before the 1st day of January, 1970 or voluntarily transfers such land on or after 1st day of January, 1970, the kudikidappukaran or each of the kudikidappukars shall be entitled to purchase such extent of land as he would have been entitled to purchase if such transfer had not taken place.]

(5) Where any person holds five acres or more of land, either as owner or as tenant, and there are more kudikidappukars than one in the lands held by him, each of the kudikidappukars shall be entitled to purchase the extent of land specified in Sub-section (3).

(6) No kudikidappukaran shall be entitled to purchase any land which is not in the lawful possession of the person who holds the land in which the kudikidappu is situate or which is not within the boundaries of each land.

1. Added by Act 25 of 1977

(7) The purchase price payable by a kudikidappukaran in consideration of the purchase allowed under this Section shall be twenty five per cent of the market value of the land purchased and the improvements thereon, other than the improvements, if any, belonging to the kudikidappukaran:

Provided that where the person in possession of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate or, where he is a member of a family, such family, holds lands in excess of the ceiling area, the purchase price payable by the kudikidappukaran shall be one-half of the purchase price payable under this Sub-section.

Explanation. — The provisions of Section 82 shall, so far as may be, apply to the calculation of the ceiling area for the purposes of the foregoing proviso and if no date has been notified under Section 83, the date of the application under Sub-section (1) of Section 80B shall be deemed to be the date notified under Section 83.

1[(8) The purchase price payable by the kudikidappukaran shall be met from the Kudikidappukaran's Benefit Fund constituted under Section 109.]

2[(8A) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-sections (7) and (8), the kudikidappukaran shall not be liable to pay his share of the purchase price in cases where the person in possession of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate or, where the person in possession of the land is holding such land under a landlord or more than one landlord and the right, title and interest of such landlord or landlords have not vested in the Government under Section 72, the person in possession of such land and such landlord or landlords agrees or agree in writing that the kudikidappukaran need not pay his share of the purchase price.]

(9) Where the kudikidappukaran applies under Sub-section (1) of Section 80B for purchase of his kudikidappu, and the Land Tribunal, on application within such time as may be prescribed by the person in possession of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate, is satisfied that the portion to be purchased is so located as to cause inconvenience to him, the Land Tribunal may require the kudikidappukaran to purchase another portion of that land:

Provided that the kudikidappukaran shall have the right to opt for the portion to be purchased by him:

Provided further that the kudikidappukaran shall not be entitled to opt for any portion which is not adjoining the boundaries of the land, except with the consent of the person in possession of the land:

Provided also that if the kudikidappukaran purchases another portion of the land, the person in possession of the land shall be liable to pay the price of the homestead, if any, erected by the kudikidappukaran and the cost of shifting the kudikidappu to such portion.

(10) If any kudikidappukaran refuses to opt under Sub-section (9), his application under Sub-section (1) of Section 80B shall be dismissed.

(11) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-sections (4) and (5), where there are more kudikidappukars than one and the extent of the land which the kudikidappukars are entitled to purchase, or the extent of the land in which the Kudikidappus are situate, is less than the multiple of the number of kudikidappukars and the extent which each kudikidappukaran is entitled to purchase under this Section, the land available for purchase, or the land in which the Kudikidappus are situate, as the case may be, shall, in the absence of any agreement among the kudikidappukars, be apportioned in equal shares, as far as practicable, for purchase by the kudikidappukars.

(12) For the purposes of this Section—

(a) the extent of land held by a person shall be the total extent of land held by such person, either as owner or as tenant, on the 1st day of July, 1969;
in calculating the extent of land held by a person who is a member of a family and the number of kudikidappukars in the lands held by such person, the extent of the land held individually by any member of his family or jointly by some or all of the members of such family, and the number of kudikidappukars thereon shall also be taken into consideration;

(c) in deciding the extent of land available for purchase by the kudikidappukaran or kudikidappukars,—

(i) any voluntary transfer effected, or any boundaries put up or any building or other structures erected, after the 1st day of July, 1969, shall not be taken into account;

(ii) the sites of the buildings and other structures situate on the land shall be excluded.

80B. Procedure for purchase by kudikidappukaran.— (1) A kudikidappukaran entitled under Section 80A to purchase the kudikidappu occupied by him and lands adjoining thereto may apply to the Land Tribunal for such purchase.

(2) An application under Sub-section (1) shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) The Land Tribunal shall, after giving notice to the kudikidappukars in the land in which the kudikidappu is situate and other persons interested in the land and after such enquiry as may be prescribed, pass such orders on the application as it thinks fit:

(4) An order under Sub-section (3) allowing an application shall specify—

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Added by Act 25 of 1971

(i) the extent of land which the kudikidappukaran is entitled to purchase;

(ii) the purchase price payable in respect of the land allowed to be purchased by the kudikidappukaran;

(iii) the amounts due to the person in possession of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate and other persons interested in the land;

(iv) the value of encumbrance subsisting or claims for maintenance or alimony charged on the land allowed to be purchased by the kudikidappukaran;

(v) the amount payable to the holder of the encumbrance or the person entitled to the maintenance or alimony and the order of priority in which such amount is payable;

(vi) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(5) If the person in possession of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate or the landowner or the intermediary, if any, of the land is liable to pay any amount to the kudikidappukaran towards the price of the homestead or the cost of shifting the kudikidappu, the Land Tribunal shall in passing orders on the application for purchase set off such amount against the purchase price payable to such person.

(6) Where the right, title and interest of the person in possession of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate or any other person interested in the land form part of the security for any encumbrance or charge for maintenance or alimony, the Land Tribunal shall for the purpose of determining the value of the encumbrance or the charge for the maintenance or alimony relating to the portion in respect of which purchase is allowed, apportion the entire encumbrance or charge for the maintenance or alimony, between the land in which the kudikidappu is situate and the portion allowed to be purchased in proportion to the values of the two portions.

(7) Where the person in possession of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate is a tenant, the purchase price payable in respection of the land to be purchased shall be apportioned among the landowner, the intermediaries, if any, and the tenant in possession of the land in proportion to the profits derivable by them from the holding.

Explanation.— "Profits derivable from the land" shall be deemed to be equal to —

(i) in the case of a landowner, the rent which he was entitled to get from the tenant holding immediately under him;
(ii) in the case of an intermediary, the difference between the rent which he was entitled to get from his tenant and the rent for which he was liable to his landlord; and
(iii) in the case of the tenant in possession, the difference between the net income and the rent payable by him; and the rent payable by such tenant and the intermediary for the purpose of this Explanation shall be as calculated under the provisions of this Act.

The necessary ingredients required to constitute the right of kudikidappu as contained in explanation 2 of Section 2 (25) should be there is the pleading.

[See Kunhambu v. Kunhammar 2000 (1) KLT 490]

Even if homestead is reconstructed, kudikidappukaran is entitled to get benefit. Section 79 does not create or confer any new right.

3[(2) As soon as may be after the order of the Land Tribunal under Sub-section (3) of Section 80B has become final, the Land Tribunal shall issue a certificate of purchase in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed, and thereupon the right, title and interest of the landowner, the intermediaries, if any, and the person in possession where he is not the landowner, in respect of the land allowed to be purchased, shall vest in the kudikidappukaran free from all encumbrances with effect from the date of such deposit or, as the case may be, the date on which the order of the Land Tribunal under the said Sub-section (3) has become final.]

4[x x x]

(4) After the issue of the certificate of purchase in respect of any land under Sub-section (2), the Land Tribunal may, on application by the kudikidappukaran, put him in possession of that land, if need be by removing any person who refuses to vacate the same.

5[(4A) Where the certificate of purchase issued to the kudikidappukaran is in respect of another portion of the land and the kudikidappukaran does not vacate the existing kudikidappu within a reasonable time after the issue of such certificate, the Land Tribunal shall cause him to be evicted from the existing kudikidappu.]

(2) Where the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, and the person in possession, of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate were subject to any encumbrance or charge for maintenance or alimony, the purchase price shall be paid to the person in possession of the land or apportioned among the landowner, the intermediaries, if any, and the person in possession of the land in accordance with the order of the Land Tribunal under Sub-section (3) of Section 80B.

(3) Where the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediaries, if any, or the person in possession, of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate where subject to any encumbrance or charge for maintenance or alimony, the value of such encumbrance, maintenance or alimony shall be deducted from the purchase price payable to the landowner, the intermediaries or the person in possession, as the case may be, and the balance amount shall be paid to the landowner or the intermediaries or the person in possession, as the case may be.

(4) If the total amount of such encumbrance, maintenance or alimony is equal to or more than the amount of the compensation payable to the landowner or the intermediary or the person in possession, as the case may be, the whole amount shall be reserved for payment to the holder of the encumbrance or the person entitled to the maintenance or alimony, and no amount shall be paid to the landowner or the intermediary or the person in possession, as the case may be.

(5) Where any amount has been deducted or reserved for payment to the holders of encumbrances or the persons entitled to the maintenance or alimony, the same shall be paid in their order of priority to the persons entitled thereto.

(6) Where a person entitled to the purchase price or the value of the encumbrance, maintenance or alimony dies before it is paid to him, it shall be paid to his legal representatives.

Provided that if such person has, in accordance with the rules made in this behalf, nominated any member of his family to receive the amount, the same shall be paid to such nominee.

(7) Where the person entitled to receive the purchase price or the value of encumbrance is a private trust or endowment or a minor or a person suffering from legal disability or a limited owner, the purchase price or the value of encumbrance may, notwithstanding anything contained in any law, but subject to any general directions that the Government may give, be deposited for and on behalf of such person with such authority, or bank as may be prescribed.

(8) Where before any court or authority any suit or proceeding is pending which directly or indirectly affects or is likely to affect the right of any person to receive the whole or part of the purchase price or the amount of encumbrance or maintenance or alimony payable under this Section, the court or authority may require the Land Tribunal to place at its disposal the amount so payable, and thereupon the same shall be disposed of in accordance with the orders of the court or authority.

80F. Payment of purchase price to landowner, etc to be full discharge.—The payment of purchase price or the value of encumbrance, maintenance or alimony to the landowner, the intermediaries, if any, and the person in possession, of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate and other persons entitled thereto in the manner specified in Section 80E shall be a full discharge of the liability for the payment of purchase price to the landowner, the intermediaries, if any, and the person in possession, of the land in which the kudikidappu is situate, and no further claims for payment of purchase price shall lie.

80G. Contribution towards purchase price.—(1) The amount to be met from the Kudikidappukar's Benefit Fund under Sub-section (8) of Section 80A, shall be made available to the Land Tribunal in twelve equal annual instalments for payment to the persons entitled thereto;

1. Added by KLR (Amendment) Act, 1979
2. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
(2) The Land Tribunal shall pay the amount of each instalment made available to it under Sub-section (1) to the persons entitled thereto on such date and in such manner as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER III
RESTRICTION ON OWNERSHIP AND POSSESSION OF LAND IN EXCESS OF CEILING AREA AND DISPOSAL OF EXCESS LANDS

81. Exemptions.— (1) The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to—

(a) lands owned or held by the Government of Kerala or the Government of any other State in India or the Government of India or a local authority [or the Cochin Port Trust] or any other authority which the Government may, in public interest, exempt, by notification in the Gazette, from the provisions of this Chapter.

[Provided that the exemption under this clause shall not apply to lands owned by the Government of Kerala and held by any person under lease whether current or time expired or otherwise.]

[Explanation I.— "Lands owned by the Government of Kerala" shall, for the purposes of this clause, have the same meaning as "Government Lands" under Sub-section (1) of Section 2 of the Kerala Government Land Assignment Act, 1960; but lands escheated to the Government and held by tenants entitled to fixity of tenure under Section 13 shall not be deemed to be lands owned by the Government of Kerala.]

[Explanation II.— Lands, the right, title and interest in respect of which have vested in the Government under Sub-section (9) of Sec-
Provided that the exemption under this clause shall cease to apply at the end of three years from the commencement of this Act;

(i) lands purchased by the Kerala Co-operative Central Land Mortgage Bank or a Primary Mortgage Bank under Section 18 of the Kerala State Co-operative Land Mortgage Banks Act, 1960, or by the Kerala State Co-operative Bank Ltd., or by a primary agricultural credit co-operative society or by a scheduled bank as defined in the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 so long as such lands continue in the possession of the bank;

(j) lands purchased by the Kerala Financial Corporation or lands the management of which has been taken over by that Corporation, under Section 32 of the State Financial Corporations Act, 1951, so long as such lands remain in the ownership, or continue under the management, as the case may be, of the said Corporation:

Explanations[Provided that the exemption under this clause shall not apply in the case of lands the management of which has been taken over by the Corporation on or after the 1st day of April, 1964;]

(k) lands belonging to or held by an industrial or commercial undertaking at the commencement of this Act, and set apart for use for the industrial or commercial purpose of the undertaking:

Provided that the exemption under this clause shall cease to apply if such land is not actually used for the purpose for which it has been set apart, within such time as the District Collector may, by notice to the undertaking, specify in that behalf;

(l) [x x x]

(m) house sites, that is to say, sites occupied by dwelling houses and lands, wells, tanks and other structures necessary for the convenient enjoyment of the dwelling houses.

Explanation.—For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that a compound wall shall not be deemed to be a structure necessary for the convenient enjoyment of a dwelling house, if the land on which the dwelling house is situated and enclosed by the compound wall is more than the land necessary for the convenient enjoyment of the dwelling house.

(n) [x x x]

(o) sites of temples, churches, mosques and cemeteries and burial and burning grounds;

(p) sites of buildings including warehouses;

(q) commercial sites;

(r) land occupied by educational institutions including land necessary for the convenient use of the institutions and playgrounds attached to such institutions;

(s) lands vested in the Bhoodan Yagna Committee;

(t) lands owned or held by—

(i) a University established by law; or

(ii) a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature; or

(iii) a public trust which expression shall include a wakf;

Provided that—

(i) the entire income of such lands is appropriated for the University, institution or trust concerned; and

(ii) where the University, institution or trust comes to hold the said lands after the commencement of this Act, the Government have certified previously that such lands are bona fide required for the purposes of the University, institution or trust, as the case may be; and

(u) lands granted to defence personnel for gallantry.

(2) *[xx]

[(3) The Government may if they are satisfied that it is necessary to do so in the public interest—

(a) on account of any special use to which any land is put; or

(b) on account of any land being bona fide required for the purpose of conversion into plantation or for the extension or preservation of an existing plantation or for any commercial, industrial, educational or charitable purpose, by notification in the Gazette, exempt such land from the provisions of this Chapter, subject to such restrictions and conditions as they may deem fit to impose:

Provided that the land referred to in clause (b) shall be used for the purpose for which it is intended within such time as the Government may specify in that behalf; and, where the land is not so used within the time specified, the exemption shall cease to be in force.]

82. Ceiling area.— *(1) The ceiling area of land shall be,—

(a) in the case of an adult unmarried person or a family consisting of a sole surviving member, five standard acres, so however that the ceiling area shall not be less than six and more than seven and a half acres in extent;

(b) in the case of a family consisting of two or more, but not more than five members, ten standard acres, so however that the ceiling area shall not be less than twelve and more than fifteen acres in extent.

(c) in the case of a family consisting of more than five members, ten standard acres increased by one standard acre for each member in excess of five, so however that the ceiling area shall not be less than twelve and more than twenty acres in extent; and

(d) in the case of any other person, other than a joint family, ten standard acres, so however that the ceiling are shall not be less than twelve and more than fifteen acres in extent.]

(2) For the purposes of this Chapter, all the lands owned or held individually by the members of a family or jointly by some or all of the members of such family shall be deemed to be owned or held by the family.

*(3) In calculating the extent of land owned or held by a family or an adult unmarried person, the shares of the members of the family or the adult unmarried person, as the case may be, in the lands owned or held—

(a) by one or more of such members jointly with any person or persons other than a member or members of such family or by such adult unmarried person jointly with any other person or persons; or

(b) by a co-operative society or a joint family, shall be taken into account.

Explanation,— For the purposes of this Sub-section, the share of a member of a family or an adult unmarried person in the lands owned or held jointly or by a co-operative society or a joint family shall be deemed to be the extent of land which would be allotted to such member or person had such lands been divided or partitioned, as the case may be, on the date notified under Section 83.

(4) Where, after the commencement of this Act, any class of land specified in Schedule II has been converted into any other class of land specified in that schedule or into a plantation, the extent of land liable to be surrendered by a person owning or holding such land shall be determined without taking into consideration such conversion.]
1[Provided that nothing contained in this section shall apply to the conversion of dry land into cashew estate.]

(5) The lands owned or held by a private trust or a private institution shall be deemed to be lands owned or held by the person creating the trust or establishing the institution, or, if he is not alive, by his successors-in-interest.

(6) In computing the ceiling area, lands exempted under Section 81 shall be excluded.

Explanation I:—For the purposes of this Section, where a person has two or more legally wedded wives living, the husband, one of the wives named by him for the purpose and their unmarried minor children shall be deemed to be one family; and the other wife or each of the other wives and her unmarried minor children shall be deemed to be a separate family.

Explanation II:—For the purposes of this Section, an adult unmarried person shall include a divorced husband or divorced wife who has not remarried:

Provided that if such divorced husband or divorced wife is the guardian of any unmarried minor child, he or she together with such unmarried child shall be deemed to be a family.

2[83. No person to hold land in excess of the ceiling area.—With effect from such dates as may be notified by the Government in the Gazette, no person shall be entitled to own or hold or to possess under a mortgage lands in the aggregate in excess of the ceiling area.]

84. Certain voluntary transfers to be null and void.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, all voluntary transfers effected after the date of publication of the Kerala Reforms Bill, 1963, in the Gazette, otherwise than—

(i) by way of partition; or

(ii) 2[x x x]

1. Omitted by Act 17 of 1972
2. Inserted by Act 17 of 1972
3. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
4. Inserted by KLR (Amendment) Act, 1979

(iii) in favour of a person who was a tenant of the holding before 27th July, 1960, and continued to be so till the date of transfer; 1[x x x]

(iv) 1[x x x]

by a family or any member thereof or by an adult unmarried person owning or holding land in excess of the ceiling area 2[or otherwise than by way of gift in favour of his son or daughter or the son or daughter of his pre-deceased son or daughter by any person owning or holding land in excess of the ceiling area] shall be deemed to be transfers calculated to defeat the provisions of this Act and shall be invalid;

Provided that, without prejudice to any other right of the parties to any such transfer, when any purchase price is payable under Section 56 or any compensation is payable 2[under Section 72H or Section 88] for any land covered by the said transfer, it shall be competent for the Land Tribunal to award to the transferee, out of the purchase price or compensation amount in respect of such land, such sum as the Land Tribunal may consider just and proper.

4[(IA) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (1), or in any judgement, decree or order of any Court or other authority, any voluntary transfer effected by means of a gift deed executed during the period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1970 and ending with the 5th day of November, 1974, by a person owning or holding land in excess of the ceiling area in favour of his son or daughter or the son or daughters of his predeceased son or daughter shall be not deemed to be, or ever to have been, invalid —

(a) if the extent of the land comprised in the gift does not exceed the ceiling area specified in clause (a) of Sub-section (1) of Section 82; and}
(b) if the extent of the land comprised in the gift exceeds the ceiling area specified in the said clause, to the extent of that ceiling area:

Provided that nothing contained in this Sub-section shall apply—

(a) to a transfer in favour of a person who was an unmarried minor on the 1st day of January, 1970;

(b) in respect of any land which has been assigned on registry under Section 96, before the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1979.

1[Explanation.— For the purposes of clause (b), a land shall be deemed to have been assigned on registry if the purchase price payable for the assignment of that land or the first instalment thereof has been deposited as required by the rules made under this Act.]

2[(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, all voluntary transfers effected by any person (other than a family or any member thereof or by an adult unmarried person) owning or holding land in excess of the ceiling area after the 1st July, 1969, otherwise than—

(i) by way of partition; or

(ii) in favour of a person who was a tenant of the holding before the 27th July, 1960, and continued to be so till the date of transfer; 3[x x x]

(iii) 3[x x x]

shall be deemed to be transfers calculated to defeat the provision of this Act and shall be invalid:

Provided that without prejudice to any other right of the parties to any such transfer, when any purchase price is payable under Section 56 or any compensation is payable under Section 72H or Section 88 for any land covered by the said transfer, it shall be competent for the Land Tribunal to award to the transferee, out of the purchase price or compensation amount in respect of such land, such sum as the Land Tribunal may consider just and proper.]

1[(3) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby clarified that the expression “ceiling area” in Sub-sections (1) and (2) means the ceiling area specified in Sub-section (1) of Section 82 as amended by the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969 (35 of 1969).]

2[(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-sections (1), (1A) or (2), or in any judgement, decree, or order of any court tribunal or other authority, no acquisition of land referred to in Section 7E shall be deemed to be invalid, or ever to have been invalid, by reason only of the fact that the land so acquired was found included as, or forming part of, the land liable to be surrendered by the transferor as excess land under the provisions of this Act and no suit or other proceedings including proceedings for eviction relating to the said land shall be instituted, maintained or continued in any court or tribunal against any person who is a deemed tenant under Section 7E and every such suit or proceedings pending shall stand abated:

Provided that ceiling cases wherein excess land has been physically taken over and distributed to landless labourers or reserved for public purposes as provided in this Act shall be reopened:

Provided further that if the Taluk Land Board is satisfied that the transfer of land made by a person, in possession of excess land is calculated to defeat the ceiling provisions, it may take into account the land so transferred in determining his ceiling area, and may direct him to surrender such extent of land held or possessed by him:

Provided also that no ceiling cases or proceedings in which any land has already been surrendered by, or assumed from, a person as excess land before the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Act, 2004, shall be reopened.]
85. Surrender of excess land.— (1) Where a person owns or holds land in excess of the ceiling area on the date notified under Section 83, such excess land shall be surrendered as hereinafter provided:

Provided that where any person bona fide believes that the ownership or possession of any land owned or held by such person or, where such person is a member of a family, by the members of such family, is liable to be purchased by the cultivating tenant or kudikkadappuran or to be resumed by the landowner or the intermediary under the provisions of this Act, the extent of the land so liable to be purchased or to be resumed shall not be taken into account in calculating the extent of the land to be surrendered under this Sub-section.

Explanation.— Where any land owned or held by a family or adult unmarried person owning or holding land in excess of the ceiling area was transferred by such family or any member thereof or by such adult unmarried person, as the case may be, after the 18th December, 1957, and on or before the date of publication of the Kerala Land Reforms Bill, 1963, in the Gazette, otherwise than—

(i) by way of partition; or

(ii) on account of natural love and affection: or

(iii) in favour of a person who was a tenant of the holding before the 18th December, 1957, and continued to be so till the date of transfer: or

(iv) in favour of a religious, charitable or educational institution of a public nature solely for the purposes of the institution, the extent of land owned or held by such family or adult unmarried person shall be calculated for purposes of fixing the extent of land to be surrendered under this Section as if such transfer had not taken place, and such family or adult unmarried person shall be bound to surrender an extent of land which would be in excess of the ceiling area on such calculation, or where such family or person does not own or hold such extent of land, the entire land owned or held by the family or person but nothing in this Explanation—

(a) shall affect the rights of the transferee under the transfer; or

(b) shall apply in the case of any transfer of land by a family or any member thereof or an adult unmarried person if the extent of land owned or held by such family or adult unmarried person, as the case may be, immediately before the transfer was not in excess of the ceiling area specified in the Kerala Agrarian Relations Act, 1960, and applicable to such family or adult unmarried person.

(2) Where a person owns or holds land in excess of the ceiling area, such person shall, within a period of three months from the date notified under Section 83, file a statement before the Land Board intimating the location, extent and such other particulars as may be prescribed, of all the lands (including lands exempted under Section 81) owned or held by such person and indicating the lands proposed to be surrendered.

Explanation I.—Where lands owned or held by a family stand in the name of more than one member of the family, the identity of the land, he ownership or possession or both of which is or are to be surrendered, shall be indicated as far as practicable with the concurrence of all the members in whose names they stand.

Explanation II.—Where land to be surrendered is owned or held by two or more persons jointly, whether or not as members of an institution or of a joint family, the identity of the same shall be indicated as far as practicable with the concurrence of all the persons who own or hold such land.

Explanation III.— Where 1[a person] owns or holds lands, including shares in the lands owned or held by a co-operative society, in excess of the ceiling area, the excess lands to be surrendered shall be lands other than shares in the lands owned or held by the co-operative society.

2[Explanation IV.— Where any person owns or holds land in excess of the ceiling area, including lands mortgaged to the Government or to a co-operative society or to a co-operative land mortgage bank registered or deemed to be registered under the Co-operative Societies Act for the time being in force, or to the Kerala Financial Corporation or to the Kerala Industrial Development Corporation or to the State Small Industries Corporation, 3[i]or to a scheduled bank as defined in the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 4[or to a corresponding new bank constituted under the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970 or to the State Bank of India constituted under the State Bank of India Act, 1955 or to a subsidiary bank as defined in the State Bank of India (Subsidiary Banks) Act, 1959] as security for any loan advanced by the Government or by such co-operative society or bank or corporation the excess lands to be surrendered shall, as far as possible, be lands other than those so mortgaged.]

2[Explanation V.— Where a person owns or holds land in excess of the ceiling area including lands owned by the Government of Kerala, the excess lands to be surrendered shall, as far as possible, be the lands owned by the Government of Kerala.]

3[(2A) The statement under Sub-section (2) shall be filed,—

(a) in the case of an adult unmarried person, by such person;

(b) in the case of a minor, lunatic, idiot or a person subject to like disability, the guardian, manager or other person in charge of such person or of the property of such person;

(c) in the case of a family, the husband or in his absence, the wife, or, in the absence of both, the guardian of the minor children;

(d) in the case of any other person, any person competent to Act for such person in this behalf.]

1[(3) Where, after the final settlement of claims for resumption of lands held by a person as tenant, such person holds land in excess of the ceiling area, or where after the purchase of the right, title and interest of the landowner and the intermediary by the cultivating tenant in respect of lands owned by a person, such person owns land in excess of the ceiling area, such excess land shall be surrendered as hereinafter provided.

(3A) The person bound to file a statement under Sub-section (2) shall, within a period of three months from the date of final settlement or purchase, file a statement before the Land Board, and the provisions of the said Sub-section shall, as far as may be, apply in regard to the particulars to be contained in such statement, the calculation of the excess land and for the procedure for the surrender of the same.]

4) Where a member of a joint family surrenders under this Section, any land belonging to the joint family and the surrender is accepted by the 2[Taluk Land Board] with or without modification in extent or identity of the lands surrendered, he shall be deemed to have become divided in status from the other members of the family, with effect from the date of the surrender, and the lands, the surrender of which has been accepted, shall be deemed to have been lands allotted to the share of such member on partition.

(5) On receipt of the statement under Sub-section (2) or Sub-section (3A) the Land Board shall transfer the statement to such Taluk Land Board as may be decided by the Land Board in accordance with such principles as may be prescribed and such Taluk Land Board shall—

(a) cause the particulars mentioned in the statement to be verified;

(b) ascertain whether the person to whom the statement relates, owns or holds any other lands; and

(c) by order, determine the extent and identity of the land to be surrendered.

(6) In determining the identity of the land, the Taluk Land Board shall accept the choice indicated under Sub-section (2) or Sub-section (3A):

Provided that the Taluk Land Board shall not be bound to accept such choice if—

(A) it has reason to believe that the person whose land is indicated to be surrendered has no good title to that land; or

(B) the land indicated to be surrendered is not accessible; or

(C) it considers for any other reason to be recorded in writing that it is not practicable to accept the choice or to take possession of the land;

Provided further that where in such determination the interest of other persons are also likely to be affected, the Taluk Land Board shall, except in cases where all the persons interested have agreed to the choice indicated, afford an opportunity to such other persons to be heard and pass suitable orders regarding the land to be surrendered.

5. Inserted by Act 25 of 1971

1. (6A) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that proceedings for the determination of the extent and other particulars of any land, the ownership or possession or both of which is or are to be surrendered by an adult unmarried person or a family, shall not abate on the death of that adult unmarried person or as the case may be, the sole surviving member of that family where it consists of only one person, or the member of that family who filed the statement under this Section or under Section 85A in the case of any other family, but shall be continued against the legal representatives of such adult unmarried person or sole surviving member or the remaining member or members of such family, as the case may be, and such legal representatives of remaining member or members shall be bound to surrender the same extent of land as such adult unmarried person or sole surviving member of such family would have been liable to surrender, if such adult unmarried person or sole surviving member or the person who filed such statement, as the case may be, were alive on the date of determination of the extent and other particulars of the land.

(7) Where any person fails to file the statement specified under Sub-section (2) or Sub-section (3A) the Land Board shall, intimate that fact to the Taluk Land Board and thereupon the Taluk Land Board shall after necessary enquiries, by order, determine the extent and other particulars of the land, the ownership or possession or both of which is or are to be surrendered:

Provided that before such determination the Taluk Land Board shall give an opportunity to the persons interested in the land, to be heard.

(8) Where the Taluk Land Board determines the extent of the land to be surrendered by any person without hearing any person interested, such person may, within sixty days from the date of such determination, apply to the Taluk Land Board to set aside the order and, if he satisfies the Taluk Land Board that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing before the Taluk Land Board it shall set aside the order and shall proceed under Sub-section (5) or Sub-section (7), as the case may be.

1[(9) The Taluk Board may, at any time, set aside its order under Sub-section (5) or Sub-section (7), as the case may be, and proceed afresh under that Sub-section if it is satisfied that—

(a) the extent of lands surrendered by, or assumed from, a person under Section 86 is less than the extent of lands which he was liable to surrender under the provisions of this Act, or

(b) the lands surrendered by, or assumed from, a person are not lawfully owned or held by him; or

(c) in a case where a person is, according to such order, not liable to surrender any land, such person owns or holds lands in excess of the ceiling area:]

Provided that the Taluk Land Board shall not set aside any order under this Sub-section without giving the persons affected thereby an opportunity of being heard:

Provided further that the Taluk Land Board shall not initiate any proceedings under this Sub-section [after the expiry of seven years] from the date on which the order sought to be set aside has become final.]

2[Explanation 1.— For the removal of doubts, it is hereby clarified that the references in this Sub-section to the Taluk Land Board shall, in cases in which the order under Sub-section (5) or Sub-section (7) as been passed by the Land Board, be construed as references to the Land Board.]

Explanation 2.— For the purposes of this Section and Section 86, "hold" with reference to land shall include "possess land under mortgage with possession".

1. Inserted by Act 25 of 1971
2. Substituted by KLR (Amendment) Act, 1989
3. Inserted by Act 13 of 1978

1[(9A) Power of Taluk Land Board to review its decision- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in the Lamination Act, 1963 (Central Act 36 of 1963), or in any other law for the time being in force or in any judgement, decree or order of any court or other authority, the Taluk Land Board may, if it is satisfied that its decision under Sub-section (5) or Sub-section (7) or subsection (9) requires to be reviewed on the ground that such decision has been made due to the failure to produce relevant data or other particulars relating to ownership or possession before it, or by collusion or fraud or any suppression of material facts the Taluk Land Board may review such decision after giving an opportunity to the parties of being heard and pass such orders as it may think fit:

Provided that the Taluk Land Board shall not reopen any such case after the expiry of three years from the date of coming into force of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act 1989.]

2[(10) Any person who, by virtue of the provisions of Sub-section (1A) of Section 84, is entitled to the restoration of the ownership or possession or both of any land may, within sixty days from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1979, apply to the Land Board or the Taluk Land Board, as the case may be, for such restoration.

(11) An application under Sub-section (10) shall be in such form, shall contain such particulars and shall be verified in such manner as may be prescribed.

(12) On receipt of an application under Sub-section (10), the Land Board or the Taluk Land Board, as the case may be, shall, after giving the applicant or any other person likely to be affected, an opportunity of being heard and after such inquiry as it deems necessary, by order, restore the ownership or possession, or both, as the case may be, of the land.]
Wife is entitled to raise contentions with regard to exemptions under various heads.

[See State of Kerala v. Ambika 2001 (3) KLT SN 130]

Taluk Land Board has no power to reopen to proceeding in exercise of the powers vested in Section 85(a) and the High Court was in error as power of review cannot be construed to upset the Judgments and decrees of competent courts.

Order for reopening - Basis for taking action under the section should be fresh materials and not the materials already on record.

[State of Kerala v. Sivasankaran Nair 2001 (3) KLT 408]

1. [85A. Certain persons to file statements.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, every family consisting of more than one member, owning or holding more than twelve acres in extent of land, every adult unmarried person and every family consisting of a sole surviving member, owning or holding more than six acres in extent of land and every other person (other than a bank) owning or holding more than twelve acres in extent of land shall, within a period of 3[seventy five days] from the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1972, file a statement before the Land Board intimating the location, extent and such other particulars as may be prescribed, of all lands (including lands exempted under Section 81) owned or held by such family or person.

Explanation.— In this Sub-section "bank" means a scheduled bank as defined in the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, or a corresponding new bank constituted under the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970, or the State Bank of India constituted under the State Bank of India Act, 1955 or a Subsidiary bank as defined in the State Bank of India (Subsidiary Banks) Act, 1959.

(2) The statement under Sub-section (1) shall be filed—

(a) in the case of an adult unmarried person or the sole surviving member of a family, by such person;

(b) in the case of a minor, lunatic, idiot or a person subject to like disability, by the guardian, manager or other person in charge of such person or of the property of such person;

(c) in the case of a family, by the husband or in his absence by the wife, or, in the absence of both, by the guardian of the minor children;

(d) in the case of any other person, by any person competent to act for such person in this behalf.

(3) On receipt of a statement under Sub-section (1), the Land Board shall transfer the statement to such Taluk Land Board as may be decided by the Land Board in accordance with such principles as may be prescribed.

86. Vesting of excess lands in Government.— [(1) On the determination of the extent and other particulars of the lands, the ownership or possession or both of which is or are to be surrendered under Section 85, the ownership or possession or both, as the case may be of the land shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, vest in the Government free from all encumbrances and the Taluk Land Board shall issue an order accordingly.]

(2) On receipt of [(the order of the Taluk Land Board under Sub-section (1)] such person shall make the surrender demanded, in such manner as may be prescribed.

1. Substituted by Act 17 of 1972
2. Substituted by Act 11 of 1973
(3) Where any person fails to make the surrender demanded, the ¹[Taluk Land Board] may authorise any officer to take possession or assume ownership of the land in such manner as may be prescribed.

²[(5)] Notwithstanding anything contained in the forgoing provisions of this Act, where any land is indicated in the statement under Sub-section (2) of Section 85 as land proposed to be surrendered, the ¹[Taluk Land Board] may, pending determination under Sub-section (5) of Section 85 of the extent and identity of the land to be surrendered by the person who has filed the statement or on whose behalf the statement has been filed, take possession of such land if it is satisfied that such person is in possession of the land and has legal title to such possession and that the land is fit for surrender, and thereupon the provisions of Sub-section (4) shall, so far as may be, apply in respect of such land.

87. Excess land obtained by gift, etc., to be surrendered. ⁴[¹Where any person acquires any land after the date notified under Section 83 by gift, purchase, mortgage with possession, lease, surrender or any other kind of transfer inter vivos or by bequest or inheritance or otherwise and in consequence thereof, the total extent of land owned or held by such person exceeds the ceiling area, such excess shall be surrendered to such authority as may be prescribed.

⁴[(Explanation I).— Where any land is exempted by or under Section 81 and such exemption is in force on the date notified under Section 83, such land shall, with effect from the date on which it ceases to be exempted, be deemed to be land acquired after the date notified under Section 83.

Explanation II.— Where, after the date notified under Section 83, any class of land specified in Schedule II has been converted into any other class of land specified in that Schedule or any land exempt under Section 81 from the provisions of this Chapter is converted into any class of land not so exempt and in consequence thereof the total extent of land owned or held by a person exceeds the ceiling area, so much extent of land as is in excess of the ceiling area, shall be deemed to be land acquired after the said date.]

[(1A) Any person referred to in Sub-section (1) shall file a statement containing the particulars specified in ²[Sub-section (1) of Section 85A within a period of three months of the date of the acquisition.]

²[(2) The provisions of Sections 85 and 86 shall, so far as may be, apply to the vesting in the Government of the ownership or possession or both of the lands required to be surrendered under Sub-section (1).]
entitled to compensation. Where the rights of an intermediary are extinguished, such intermediary shall also be entitled to compensation.

1[(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (1), no person shall be entitled to any compensation in respect of any land owned by the Government of Kerala and held by him under lease or otherwise.]

2[(2) The compensation payable to an owner for the vesting in the Government of ownership and possession of land shall be an amount calculated at the rates specified in Schedule IV.

(3) The compensation payable to the landowner, intermediary or cultivating tenant for the vesting in the Government or extinguishment of his rights shall be the portion of an amount calculated at the rates specified in Schedule IV that will fall to his share if such amount were apportioned among the landowner, cultivating tenant and intermediary, if any, in respect of the land according to the following provisions:

(i) ninety percent of the portion of the compensation for the site of any homestead or hut in the occupation of a kudikidappukaran shall be deducted from the total amount of compensation;

(ii) the balance remaining after deducting the amount referred to in clause (i) shall be apportioned among the landowner, the intermediaries and the cultivating tenant in proportion to the profits derivable by them from the land immediately before the surrender, assumption or vesting in the Government, as the case may be.

Explanation.—“Profits derivable from the land” shall be deemed to be equal to (i) in the case of a landowner, the rent which he was entitled to get immediately before the 1st day of January, 1970, from the tenant holding immediately under him; (ii) in the case of an intermediary, the difference between the rent which he was entitled to get immediately before the 1st day of January, 1970, from his tenant and the rent for which he was liable to his landlord immediately before that day; and (iii) in the case of a cultivating tenant, the difference between the net income and the rent which he was liable to pay immediately before the said day.

(3A) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-sections (2) and (3), where the compensation due under those Sub-sections to an adult unmarried person, family or any other person (other than a joint family), as owner, landowner, intermediary or cultivating tenant or in any two or more of such capacities exceeds one lakh rupees, the compensation payable shall be limited to the amount specified in the Table below:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Total amount of compensation</th>
<th>Rate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>On the first Rs. 1 lakh</td>
<td>100 per cent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>On the next Rs. 50,000</td>
<td>50 per cent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>On the balance amount</td>
<td>25 per cent</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Provided that the compensation payable shall in no case exceed Rs. 2 lakhs.

(4) 1[Where the rights of a mortgagee in possession are vested in the Government] —

(i) Where the ownership of the land mortgaged 1[has vested in the Government] the mortgagee shall be treated as a holder of an encumbrance in respect of the land, and the encumbrance shall be discharged as provided in Sections 91 and 92;

1. Inserted by Act 17 of 1972
2. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
3. Omitted by Act 17 of 1972

1. Substituted by Act 17 of 1972
(ii) in other cases, the Government shall pay to the mortgagee the amount to which he would have been entitled under clause (i) if the ownership of the land mortgaged had vested in] the Government, and hold the land as mortgagee with possession with all the rights and liabilities of the mortgagee.

2[(5) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the compensation payable under this Section in respect of a land shall be deemed to include the compensation for growing crops and improvements, if any, thereon and that no person shall be entitled to any amount other than the compensation payable under this Section for the vesting in the Government or extinguishment of his rights (including his rights in respect of growing corps and improvements if any) in respect of the land.

89. Payment of advance towards compensation. — Pending the determination of the amount of compensation payable to any person under Section 88, it shall be competent for the Land Board to pay such amount as it considers proper to such person as part payment of the compensation on taking proper security, in case it is found that he is entitled to such amount. The amount so paid shall be deducted from the compensation payable to such person and the Land Board shall pay to him only the balance.

90. Preparation of compensation roll. — (1) As soon as may be after the [Taluk Land Board] has determined the extent and particulars of any land the ownership or possession or both of which is or are to be surrendered, the [Taluk Land Board] shall, forwarding the necessary documents, direct the Land Tribunal to prepare and submit to the Taluk Land Board a compensation roll showing —

(a) the description of the land or the interests in the land surrendered or assumed;

(b) the name and address of the person surrendering the same or from whom the same was assumed;

(c) the names and addresses of the landowner, intermediary and the cultivating tenant and the amount of compensation payable to each;

(d) the names of the holders of the encumbrances (including mortgagees who have surrendered possession of excess lands), maintenance or alimony and the value of the encumbrances or of the claims for maintenance or alimony; and

(e) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

1[(2) On receipt of the direction under Sub-section (1), the Land Tribunal shall, after giving an opportunity to all persons interested to be heard and after making such enquiry as it considers necessary, prepare a draft compensation roll and furnish copies thereof to the persons interested, together with a notice inviting objections to the draft compensation roll within such period, not being less than thirty days from the date of the notice, as may be specified in the notice.

(2A) The Land Tribunal shall also cause the draft compensation roll to be published in such manner as may be prescribed.]

(3) Where any land, the ownership or possession or both of which is or are surrendered to, or assumed by, the Government, forms part of the security for an encumbrance, maintenance or alimony, the Land Tribunal shall for the purpose of discharging the same apportion the entire encumbrance, maintenance or alimony between the land surrendered to, or assumed by, the Government and the portion of the security remaining, in proportion to the values of the two portions of the security.

1[(4) After considering the objections, if any, received within the period specified in the notice under Sub-section (2), the Land Tribunal shall prepare a final compensation roll showing the particulars mentioned in Sub-section (1) and shall also pass an order recording his reasons for each entry in the final compensation roll and for accepting or rejecting the objections, if any, received in pursuance of the notice under Sub-section (2).]

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Inserted by Act 17 of 1972
3. Substituted by Act 17 of 1972
91. Payment of compensation.— (1) On receipt of the compensation roll under Section 90, the Land Board shall pay the compensation to the persons entitled thereto, subject to the provisions of Sub-section (2).

(2) Where the land or the ownership or possession of land which has vested in the Government, is subject to any encumbrance, maintenance or alimony, the value of the encumbrance, maintenance or alimony shall be deducted from the compensation amount payable to the person liable for such encumbrance, maintenance, or alimony. If the total amount of such encumbrance, maintenance or alimony is more than the amount of compensation, the compensation amount shall be distributed to the holders of the encumbrance and the persons entitled to the maintenance or alimony in the order of priority.

(3) The Land Board shall also pay the mortgage amount payable to a mortgagee under clause (ii) of Sub-section (4) of Section 88.

92. Payment of compensation and amount of encumbrance.— (1) The compensation or the amount of encumbrance, as the case may be, shall be paid—

(a) where the person entitled to receive the compensation or the amount of encumbrance is not a private trust or endowment or a body corporate, the compensation or the amount of encumbrance shall be paid either in cash or in negotiable bonds redeemable after the expiry of sixteen years and carrying simple interest at the rate of four and a half per cent per annum with effect from the date on which the ownership or possession or both of the land has or have vested in the Government under Section 86 or Section 87 or partly in cash and partly in such bond, in such manner as may be prescribed;

(b) where the person entitled to receive the compensation or the amount of encumbrance is a private trust or endowment or a body corporate, the compensation or the amount of encumbrance shall be paid in cash or in treasury certificate to be encashed after the expiry of sixteen years and carrying simple interest at the rate of four and a half per cent per annum with effect from the date on which the ownership or possession or both of the land has or have vested in the Government under Section 86 or Section 87 or partly in cash and partly in such treasury certificate, in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Where the person entitled to receive the compensation or the amount of encumbrance is a minor or a person suffering from some legal disability or a limited owner, the compensation or the amount of encumbrance, either in cash or in negotiable bond or partly in cash and partly in such bond as may be payable under Sub-section (1), shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any law, but subject to any general directions that the Government may give, be deposited for and on behalf of the person with such authority or bank as may be prescribed.

(3) Where a person entitled to the compensation or the amount of encumbrance under Sub-section (1) dies before it is paid to him, it shall be paid to his legal representatives:

Provided that if such person has, in accordance with the rules made by this behalf, nominated any member of his family to receive the amount, the same shall be paid to such nominee.

Explanation.— For the purpose of the preceding proviso, member of family means wife or husband, son or daughter of such person.

(4) Where before any court or authority any suit or proceeding is pending which directly or indirectly affects or is likely to affect the right of any person to receive the whole or part of the compensation or the amount of encumbrance, the court or authority may require the Land Board to place at its disposal the amount so payable and thereupon the same shall be disposed of in accordance with the orders of the court or authority.

93. Payment of compensation to be full discharge.—The payment of compensation in the manner specified in Section 92 shall be a full discharge of the liability for payment of compensation, and no further claim therefore shall lie.

94. [x x x]

95. Application for assignment of land.—Any person who does not possess any land or possesses only less than [one acre] of land in extent may apply to the Land Board for assignment on registry of lands to him.

96. Assignment of lands by Land Board.—[1[(1) The Land Board shall assign on registry subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed, the lands vested in the Government under Section 86 or Section 87, as specified below:

   (i) the lands in which there are kudikkidappukars shall be assigned to such kudikkidappukars;

   (ii) the remaining lands shall be assigned to:

   (a) landless agricultural labourers, and

   (b) small-holders and other landlords who are not entitled to resume any land:

Provided that eighty-seven and a half per cent of the area of the lands referred to in clause (ii) available for assignment in a taluk shall be assigned to landless agricultural labourers of which one-half shall be assigned to landless agricultural labourers belonging to the [Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and such other socially and economically backward classes of citizens as may be specified in this behalf, by the Government by notification in the Gazette.]

[Explanation I.—For the purposes of this Sub-section—

(a) a kudikkidappukaran or the tenant of a kudiyirippu shall be deemed to be a landless agricultural labourer if he does not possess any other land;

(b) kudikkidappukaran shall include a person who was a kudikkidappukaran to whom a certificate of purchase has been issued under Sub-section (2) of Section 80C.]

(1 A) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (1), the Land Board may, if it considers that any land vested in the Government under Section 86 or Section 87 is required for any public purpose, reserve such land for such purpose.

(2) The Land Board shall not assign to any person more than one acre in extent of land.

(3) Where a person possesses any land, only so much land as will make the extent of land in his possession [one acre] shall be assigned to him.

97. Payment of purchase price.—(1) The purchase price of the land assigned on registry under Section 96 shall be an amount [calculated at the rate specified in Schedule IV] and shall be payable either in lump or in sixteen equal annual instalments. The assignment shall be made on payment of the purchase price either in lump or the first instalment thereof.

(2) Where the purchase price is payable in instalments, the amount outstanding after payment of each instalment shall bear interest at the rate of 4\%/\% per cent per annum.

(3) All amounts due from an assignee shall be a first charge on the land assigned and shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue under the Revenue Recovery Act for the time being in force.

1. Omitted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
3. Substituted by Act 25 of 1971
4. Substituted by Act 17 of 1972
98. Management of surrendered lands till assignment.—The Land Board shall, subject to such rules as may be made by the Government in this behalf, manage the lands vested in them until they are assigned under [Section 96], by making arrangements for their cultivation and protection.

2[98A. Interpretation.—For the purposes of this Chapter, the term “person” shall not include a co-operative society or an institution of a public nature for religious and charitable purposes established and maintained by a religious denomination or any Section thereof or the Board of Trustees for the Improvement of the City of Trivandrum constituted under Section 3 of the Trivandrum City Improvement Trust Act, 1960].

3[Explanation.—If any question arises as to whether an institution is an institution of a public nature for religious and charitable purposes maintained by a religious denomination or any Section thereof, the question shall be decided by the Government and such decision shall be final.]

Bar of jurisdiction of civil courts.— (1) No civil court shall have jurisdiction to settle, decide or deal with any question or to determine any matter which is by or under this Act required to be settled, decided or dealt with or to be determined by the Land Tribunal or the Appellate authority or the Land Board (or Taluk Land Board) or the Government or an officer of the Government:

Provided that nothing contained in this Sub-section shall apply to proceedings pending in any court at the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969.

(2) No order of the Land Tribunal or the Appellate authority or the Land Board (or the Taluk Land Board) or the Government or an officer of the Government made under this Act shall be questioned in any civil court, except as provided in this Act.

(3) If in any suit or other proceedings any question regarding rights of a tenant or of a kudikidappukaran (including a question as to whether a person is a tenant or a kudikidappukaran) arises, the civil court shall stay the suit or other proceeding and refer such question to the Land Tribunal having jurisdiction over the area in which the land or part thereof is situate together with the relevant records for the decision of that question only.

(4) The Land Tribunal shall decide the question referred to it under Sub-section (3) and return the records together with its decision to the civil court.

(5) The civil court shall then proceed to decide the suit or other proceedings accepting the decision of the Land Tribunal on the question referred to it.

(6) The decision of the Land Tribunal on the question referred to it shall, for the purposes of appeal, be deemed to be part of the finding of the civil court.

1. Substituted by Act 35 of 1969
2. Inserted by Act 17 of 1972
No civil court shall have power to grant injunction in any suit or other proceedings referred to in Sub-section (3) restraining any person from entering into or occupying or cultivating any land or kudikidappu or to appoint a receiver for any property in respect of which a question referred to in that Sub-section has arisen, till such question is decided by the Land Tribunal, and any such injunction granted or appointment made before the commencement of the Kerala Land Reforms (Amendment) Act, 1969, or before such question has arisen, shall stand cancelled.

In this Section, “civil court” shall include a Rent Control Court as defined in the Kerala Buildings (Lease and Rent Control) Act, 1965.

The finding of the Land Tribunal on the claim of tenancy over land - in- suit is entitled to great weight being a subject matter in its exclusive jurisdiction. It has binding effect on the civil court. It can be held liable to be upset only on strong and cogent grounds.

Suit for redemption of mortgage pending on 1-1-1970. The question of tenancy is to be decided by the civil court and not by Land Tribunal.

There is no obligation for the civil court to make a reference if the question of tenancy does not legally arise before it.

Only a claim of tenancy coming within the purview of section 13 of the Act need be referred to the concerned Land Tribunal in terms of Section 125 (3) of the Act. There is no exclusion of the jurisdiction of the Civil Court in considering and deciding the claims of a lessee.

Civil Court has no jurisdiction to decide the issue regarding tenancy.

1. Inserted by Act 17 of 1972

126. Construction of references to acres and cents.— All references in this Act to areas of land expressed in terms of acres (but not standard acres) and cents shall be construed as references to areas expressed in terms of hectares and ares, converted thereto at the rates specified in the Schedule to the Standards of Weights and Measures

127. Act to override other laws, etc.— The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything in any other law or any custom or usage or in any contract, express or implied, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

128. Power to remove difficulties.— If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, as occasion may require, by order, do anything not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, which appears to them necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

1. Delegation of powers by Land Board.— The Land Board may, with the previous approval of the Government, by general or special order in writing, delegate to any District Collector any of its powers under this Act, other than the powers under Sub-section (2) of Section 101, to be exercised in respect of such area as may be specified in the order, subject to such conditions and reservations as it may deem fit.

1. Wrong or excess payments recoverable under Revenue Re-

1. Inserted by Act 35 of 1969
covery Act.— If, for any reason any amount has been paid by the Land Board or the Land Tribunal to any person not entitled to such amount under this Act or to any person in excess of the amounts due to him under this Act, such amount or, as the case may be, the amount in excess shall be recoverable from the person to whom it has been paid as arrears of public revenue due on land under the provisions of the Revenue Recovery Act for the time being in force.

129. Power to make rules.— (1) The Government may make rules to carry out all or any of the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for the following matters:

(a) the fees payable on applications, appeals and claims made under this Act and the persons by whom and the period within which such fees shall be paid;

(b) the registers to be kept and maintained by the Land Tribunal, the Appellate authority, the Taluk Land Board and the Land Board and the particulars to be entered therein;

(c) the procedure to be followed in the preparation of compensation rolls;

(d) the filing of statements before the Land Tribunal, the Taluk Land Board and the Land Board;

(e) the procedure to be followed by the Land Tribunal, the Taluk Land Board and the Land Board;

(f) for the joint consideration by the Land Tribunal of two or more applications involving the same question;

(ff) for the joint consideration by the Appellate authority of two or more appeals involving the same question;

(g) the assignment of lands by the Land Board under Section 96;

(h) the management of land before assignment under Section 98;

(i) any other matter which under this Act is to be, or may be, prescribed.

130. Laying of rules and notifications before the Legislative Assembly.— Every rule made under this Act and every notification issued under clause (a) of Sub-section (1) or Sub-section (3) of Section 81 shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made or issued before the Legislative Assembly while it is in session for a total period of 14 days which may be comprised in one session for session or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid, or the session immediately following, the legislative Assembly makes any modification in the rule or notification or decides that the rule or notification should not be made, or issued, the rule or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or notification.

131. Limitation.— In computing the period of limitation for the institution of suits or proceedings under this Act, the time during which such suits or proceedings were prohibited or stayed under any of the enactments repealed by this Act, shall be excluded.

132. Repeal and Savings.— (1) (a) The Proclamation XVI of 1122 (Cochin), dated the 14th February, 1947, the Proclamation VI of 1124 (Cochin), dated the 12th January, 1949, the Kerala RoytwarTenants and Kudikidappukars Protection Act, 1962 and the Kerala Tenants and Kudikidappukars Protection Act, 1963, are hereby repealed, and all suits, appeals, revisions, reviews and proceedings in execution of decrees stayed by the said enactments may be disposed of by the courts in which they were pending at the commencement of this Act, in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(b) The costs in respect of the suits, appeals, revisions, reviews and execution proceedings stayed by the enactments specified in clause (a) shall be in the discretion of the court.

(2) The following enactments as in force in any part of the State of Kerala are hereby repealed, namely:—

(i) The Cochin Verumpattamkars Act, VIII of 1118
(iii) The Malabar Tenancy Act, 1929.

(3) Notwithstanding the repeal of the enactments mentioned in Sub-section (2)—

(a) any decree passed before the commencement of this Act for the eviction of a tenant from his holding, pursuant to which eviction has not been effected, may, on the application of the tenant or the landlord, be reopened and the matter may be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this Act;

(b) any suit for restoration filed under Section 24 or Section 26 or Sub-section (3) of Section 53 of the Malabar Tenancy Act, 1929 or any application for determination of fair rent made under Section 16 of that Act or any application for fixation of fair rent made under Section 9 of the Madras Cultivating Tenants (Payment of Fair Rent) Act, 1956, and pending disposal at the commencement of this Act shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts as if those Acts had not been repealed;

(c) (i) Where the decree-holder, plaintiff, appellant or petitioner, as the case may be, is a person entitled to resumption of land under this Act he shall have the right to apply to the court to allow resumption of the holding or any part thereof to which he is entitled;

(ii) the application under sub-clause (i) shall be made within one year from the commencement of this Act and shall contain a statement of facts in support of the claims of the applicant and also the names and addresses of all persons who have interest in the holding either as owner, lessee or kudikidappukaran;

(iii) the court shall dispose of the application as if it were an application for resumption before the Land Tribunal under this Act;

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the right conferred on the decree-holder, plaintiff, appellant or petitioner, as the case may be, under sub-clause (i) of clause (c) shall not be deemed to take away or in any manner affect his right to apply for resumption under this Act.

(4) (i) The Kerala Agrarian Relations Act, 1960, is hereby repealed.

(ii) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Kerala Agrarian Relations Act, 1960 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),—

(a) all applications for determination of fair rent filed or purported to have been filed under the said Act, in which no order determining the fair rent had been passed by the Land Tribunal, shall be deemed to have been filed under this Act and shall be disposed of according to the provisions of this Act;

(b) where the Land Tribunal constituted or purported to have been constituted under the said Act had passed an order determining the fair rent in respect of a holding, but an appeal or application for revision in respect of such order was pending before the Appellate or revising authority at the time when the said Act was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court or the High Court, or the proceedings under the said Act were stayed under the Kerala Tenants and Kudikidappukars Protection Ordinance, 1962, as the case may be, in its or their application to the land comprised in the holding, such Appellate or revising authority shall reopen the matter and dispose of it in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and, for that purpose, shall have all the powers of the Appellate or revising authority, as the case may be, under this Act;
Where the Land Tribunal constituted or purported to have been constituted under the said Act had passed an order determining the fair rent in respect of a holding, but the time for preferring appeal or revision in respect of such order had not expired at the time when the said Act was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court or the High Court, or the proceedings under the said Act were stayed under the Kerala Tenants and Kudikidappukars Protection Ordinance, 1962, as the case may be, in its or their application to the land comprised in the holding, any party aggrieved by the order of the Land Tribunal may, within three months from the commencement of this Act, prefer an appeal or an application for revision against such order before the Appellate or revising authority under this Act, and thereupon such authority shall re-open the matter and dispose of it in accordance with the provisions of this Act; in cases where orders determining fair rent have been passed or purported to have been passed under the said Act and such order had become final, such orders shall be deemed to have been passed under this Act for purposes of payment of fair rent;

notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the fair rent referred to in sub-clause (d) shall be the rent payable by the cultivating tenant, but such fair rent shall not be taken as the basis for the determination of the purchase price under Section 55, and the fair rent for the determination of such purchase price shall be the fair rent determined under this Act.

Subject to the provisions of clause (ii), the said Act or the rules, notifications or orders made or issued thereunder, shall not be deemed to have conferred any right or imposed any liability on any person, as if the said Act had not been enacted.
