.Length of text:

The text is a formal document in Malayalam. It appears to be a letter or notification from an organization or government. The content is not legible due to the resolution of the image. The document contains official language and might be discussing a matter of importance. Without clearer visibility or transcription, the precise details or context of the document cannot be accurately described.